Suntory

Ch. Suntory Prada
Prada was RWB at the ALAC National in Olympia, Washington, under Dr. Berndt at age 14 months. She began her specials career last summer and has been well-received in the very competitive Northwest Non-Sporting Group. She has a number of strong group placements, including Wenatchee KC, under breeder judge Bobbie Wood (cover).

She was Group 4 at the prestigious Sand to Sea Non-Sporting Association in Indio, Calif., January 1, 2009. Her sire, Ch Suntory Armani, is a Paparazzi litter brother, and her dam is Ch My Ty Rainbow Suntory Chili.

Thank you to the judges and members of the fancy who have expressed their appreciation of Prada’s type, elegance and soundness, which are peppered with her own brand of Lhasa humor and independence.

THE CLUBS 50TH ANNIVERSARY
Now is the time to plan for a very special National Specialty to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the American Lhasa Apso Club to be held this coming October in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The festivities begin Sunday, October 11, 2009 with a Fun Match on the hotel grounds to commemorate the very first match held by the American Lhasa Apso Club at Hamilton Farms. CMLAC and NACLAC will follow with specialty shows while ALAC will host performance events on Wednesday, the Regional Specialty on Thursday and conclude with the National Specialty on Friday. All in all, it makes for a wonderful week to renew old friendships and make new ones.

MAKE PLANS TO COME
The Anniversary Committee is working hard to make the 50th anniversary National Specialty one that everyone will remember. There will be many historic artifacts for everyone to see. The Breeder’s Education Committee has a program planned for all to enjoy. As with each year, the awards banquet will celebrate the latest winners in a long line of wonderful animals. Don’t forget to commemorate this special year with a catalog advertisement. The commemorative catalog will include the winners from years past and we expect a large number of advertisements in this collector’s item. You certainly don’t want to be left out! Start planning now for pictures to enter in the photo contest. This particular event is always a lot of fun and 2009 should be no exception. And don’t forget to donate to the Trophy Fund. We will have wonderful trophies designed by our very own member Lauryna Rubikaite. As is our custom, a $50.00 donation gets the donor two ringside seats. And the ALAC Rescue Raffle will include a wonderful handmade blanket. You can have your kennel name embroidered on the blanket with a $10.00 donation to ALAC Rescue. Contact Linda Smith for more details!

A SPECIAL KEEPSAKE PIN
One very special item that will be available only this year is ALAC’s 50th Anniversary Pin, created by Bobbie Wood. You may purchase the pin separately or in combination with the commemorative catalog. Do make sure that you take advantage of this outstanding item as there will only be a limited number available. So make sure you get your pre-orders in as soon as possible to insures your pin’s availability.

I can't begin to express how much Colby meant to me. He changed my life, introducing me to the world of dog shows and all the wonderful people that craziness entails.

His character was larger than life, often silly, sometimes a bit naughty, but always with a happy tail. Ever the charmer, he made quick friends of everyone he met along his journey.

Colby filled me with joy, whether making me smile "just because" or laughing at his antics. We shared so many wonderful times and I'll forever hold those memories close in my heart.

Our favorite moments were the quiet times when he would lie on his back in my lap, melting into my arms. Our bond will remain inseparable.

Sire of 10 champions, Colby lives on through his kids and grandkids who inherited not only his outstanding Lhasa qualities, but his beautiful spirit.

The tragic passing of Colby has left a huge hole in my heart. He will forever be my little man.

I miss him beyond words.

What I did on My Winter Vacation.
By Tallie

When we went to the national in Massachusetts in October I met Ed and Rey. I wagged my tail and gave them kisses and they really liked me. They asked my mom if they could take me to Florida for a winter vacation. So I came down to Orlando with them and it was like going to the Doggy Spa; they fed me and bathed me and walked me. We went to some dog shows and Ed took me in the ring. I waltzed around as pretty as you please and became a champion. Now I'm going back to Maryland to meet a handsome guy and then have some babies. It was a great winter vacation! Thanks Ed and Rey! Kisses and wags!

Love Tallie.

DON’T TICKLE THE DRAGON

For those who are looking to clean their dog’s teeth, use our biscuits named Dragon’s Teeth, or Dragonettes for the little mouth or mouths with few teeth. The shape of the biscuit helps to scrape off the plaque, if fed soon after eating or at bedtime.

The April 2004 issue of Life Extension Magazine reported in a Japanese study about perilla oil, which is one of the ingredients in Dragon’s Teeth biscuits. The study concluded that it was a possible treatment in the early stages of colon cancer. It is also used with heart problems and breast cancer.

We also use south Antarctic krill, which look like small shrimp. They live in clean Antarctic waters.

Astaxanthin, another ingredient, helps to reverse early cataracts and early macular degeneration, according to recent studies. Look up information on the Web.

We use oatmeal, a non-allergic grain. The oldest long-living man on record supposedly lived to be 152 years old in England during the reign of King Charles I. The man claimed that he ate oatmeal everyday of his life. As a guest of the king, he was given meat to eat. He was dead within two weeks. Interesting!

We included peppermint to settle the stomach and clear up bad bacteria in the stomach. Peppermint is also used for IBS and diarrhea. We added green tea for its antioxidant properties. Oriental cultures credit long life to green tea.

Fish is brain food. Our chitosin is from fish. It is used in many diets since it has the ability to absorb excess fat and is safe. Many reducing diets include chitosin. Spinach is our source of chlorophyll. Every cell in the body contains chlorophyll. (That is why our Solid Gold Sea Meal is our shining star!) Chlorophyll transmits electricity in our body from cell to cell. Without it, the body couldn’t communicate its actions.

If you saw our previous ad, “In Search of Cinnamon,” about our Cinn-Bone Biscuits in 2 1/2 and 1 pound containers, you read that cinnamon contains sulfur, the eighth most prevalent ingredient in a dog and human body. Insects cannot reproduce in the presence of cinnamon. It is a natural flea, fly and insect repellent. But do not put cinnamon on your dog’s coat, it will dry the coat out. It must be mixed with other ingredients and taken internally. The flea season is coming soon.

The Chinese have an interesting saying: “Don’t tickle the Dragon”. Not sure what it means!

Dragons Teeth and Dragonettes are available in 1 pounds or 2 1/2 pound jars. Call to place an order at (619) 258-7356, M-F, 11 am-5pm (PST).

FLASH: Solid Gold uses no peanut butter. See Salmonella poisoning making 500 people ill. One dog food company uses peanut hulls in its canned food - Peanut hulls frequently contain a fungus which causes ear infections.

In Memoriam
BURT PETTIT

Burt Pettit was a friend to everyone who showed Lhasas in the north east specifically in the New York area. Always a helping hand when arriving at a show or when packing up to go home, Burt was there for all of us. Burt enjoyed talking about the dogs, his family, his work and was equally a good and concerned listener. His life enriched all of us who knew him and we are saddened by his passing. Our sympathy to Joan and her whole family.

The next issue of the bulletin will have a tribute to Evelyn Bigman who passed away recently. Please contact Dana Read, otakalhasas@aol.com, for information to participate.

The Lhasa Apso Club of Westchester

THE AMERICAN LHASA APSO CLUB
OFFICIAL PIN OF OUR
50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE NATIONAL CLUB

This pin is being specially cast for our 50th anniversary year of the forming of the National Club. It will be a Cloisonne lapel pin with the dog in gold.

We will make one order for the National Specialty and then there will be no more. So we would like to take pre-orders that you can either pick up at the National or we can send to you. We will order some extras to sell at the National but there won't be many so if you would like one it would be best to pre-order.

Also, we are offering a pre-order to purchase the pin and the National Anniversary Catalog as a combination. This will allow anybody not planning to attend the show to have a catalog and the pin and not be left out. This catalog will be an historical tribute to the dogs that came before and will be a valuable asset to a Lhasa library.

Pin Only
PRE-ORDER PRICE: $12.00 (pick up at National)

Let your creative side come out!

The theme basket competition is for Lhasa clubs and for individuals. There are two basic themes this year: 1. Celebration of the 50th Anniversary and 2. Regional Area (can include, foods, wines, artistry, souvenirs, etc.)

Don't feel like doing a basket? This year there is an additional activity that we hope you will enjoy: Art and Craft for ALAC's Anniversary. In honor of our special anniversary year (and because ALAC members have so many talents!) we are inviting members who wish to participate to create artwork or craft creations inspired by Lhasas and/or ALAC's Anniversary and bring or send the projects to the National! These items would be displayed for the membership to enjoy (this would not be a competition) and then donated as auction/raffle.

Stephanie Kodis is organizing our RAFFLE and will accept items until October 1. Contact Stephanie at Mokeima2@aol.com. Regional Lhasa clubs are encouraged to participate in this year’s competitive Basket Raffle. Watch for more details via ALAC Online and the website. An AUCTION will be held in conjunction with the Awards Banquet. Susan Giles is organizing this event. Please advise her by September 15 if you plan to contribute an item or donate cash toward purchasing an item. Susan’s email is ssgiles@aol.com.

TROPHIES WILL BE SPECTACULAR

As always your contribution to the ALAC trophy fund makes all of this possible. Remember that donations of $50. and over entitles you to 2 reserved ringside seats!
