President’s message

Dear ALAC Members,

This is to let you know that I will not be seeking a third year as president of ALAC. Serving you during the past two years has been exciting, a challenge, and rewarding.

In concert with the officers, Board, and many capable committee chairs, ALAC has moved forward, as I had promised, in a productive and positive direction. This is not to suggest that every decision or action has been received without criticism. None of us is naive enough to believe that everyone will agree on all matters. However, the best interest of the club and its members has always been the number one motivating force in our actions.

Much has been accomplished: A review of finances; an active financial affairs committee; a timely, readable Bulletin; movement toward the resolution of the yearbook inventory; establishment of goals for committees; timely issuance of meeting minutes; a first draft of revised constitution and by-laws; movement toward a code of ethics, to name those that come immediately to mind. None of this has been done alone, and I thank those who have given so freely of their time and abilities for ALAC.

There are still unmet goals and challenges. I believe, however, that it is time for fresh energy and creativity to continue to carry ALAC forward. There are new challenges for me. I hope that pursuing them will be as fulfilling as serving as your president.

Thank you for the opportunity you have given me.

Your friend,
Cassandra de la Rosa
President
What a day it was at the Skyline KC show on January 21 to see your new dog for the first time as he was not only WD and BOW but went BOB over three outstanding Specials under judge Jean Lepley. This was Felony’s second 4 point major.

To cap the day, Felony then tood a Group 3 in a strong Non-Sporting lineup, Felony and Sandy, what a combination!

Thanks to the Barkers for parting with such an outstanding Lhasa, whose temperament is as outstanding as his structure and movement.

The nominating committee has submitted the following slate:

President: Joan Kendall
Vice President: Susan Giles
Treasurer: Stephen Campbell
Secretary: Carolyn Herbel

Board of Directors:
- Marie Allman
- Richard Camacho
- Lynette Clooney
- Victor Cohen
- Don Hanson
- Joyce Johanson
- Becky Kraus
- Brenda Schmelzel
- Marvin Whitman

Immediate Past President: Cassandra de la Rosa
AKC Delegate: Ray Sledzik (remains the same - 2 year term - this is the second year)

The following board members and officers were present: Marie Allman, Richard Camacho, Stephen Campbell, Victor Cohen, Cassandra de la Rosa, Susan Giles, Don Hanson, Carolyn Herbel, Brenda Schmelzel, Edmund Sledzik and Marvin Whitman. The following members and guests were also present: Dorothy Kendall, Ann Lanterman, Mary Leiweke, Michael Leiweke, Dorothy Wallace, Janet Whitman and Barbara Wood.

The meeting was called to order at 1:05pm by the President, Cassandra de la Rosa. She stated that the club was moving in a positive and productive manner. She emphasized that committee chairs were meeting goals and discussed the good communications between all.

Secretary's Report: Stephen Campbell reported on correspondence received, national specialty approval, informed the board that the membership roster is completed as of February 10, 1990 and distributed copies to all board members. A copy will be printed in either the next bulletin or the handbook, which ever is published first. He also noted that all regional specialty approvals could now be faxed to the AKC and this makes for not only a faster method, but provides for an immediate receipt of transmission.

Treasurer's Report: Carolyn Herbel presented the following:
- Balance Sept. 1, 1989: $0.00
- Receipts: $20,933.87
- Disbursements: $3,484.86
- Checkbook Bal., Feb. 1, 1990: $17,449.01

*PLEASE NOTE: A detailed report of the treasurer is attached to these minutes. Carolyn presented a list of members who paid their dues after the December 1, 1989 deadline. Carolyn made the following motion: That the board approve the reinstatement of the above mentioned members who renewed their membership after December 1, 1989. Motion seconded by Brenda Schmelzel. Motion carried. Carolyn also presented a list of ALAC members who have not paid their dues as of February 10, 1990. There was discussion of various outstanding checks and the final report of the previous treasurer, Marvin Whitman was submitted to the current treasurer.

The following committee reports were received:
- Historian
- Education
- Handbook
- Futurity
- National Specialty Coordinator
- Membership
- Obedience
- Liaison
- Trophy
- Bulletin
- Finance
- Logo
- Breed Standard
- Awards
- Membership Drive

There were no reports received from: Health, Yearbook Distribution and By-Laws Revision. The president will contact inactive committee chairs to ascertain whether they wish to continue in their present capacity. Areas of special note relating to committee reports are as follows:

Handbook Committee: Sondra Rogers informed the board, as of January 15, 1990, that with regret she was resigning from the position of chairperson of the handbook committee.

National Specialty Coordinator: Jeanne Hope wrote stating...
Tripper, pictured under Langdon Skarda finished with 3 majors shown by Lani Howell and is for sale.

Thank you Leslie and Marianne for sharing this lovely young dog with me. that the balloting for the 1991 and 1992 national specialties was completed and that Carolyn Herbel will be the judge for 1991 and Michelle Billings for 1992. She has also requested bids from local clubs in region one for hosting the 1993 specialty.

Futurity Secretary Report: Ann Lanterman reported that nominations for 1990 futurities total 139, through December 31, 1989.

Futurity Host Coordinator: Debbie Burke reported that AKC approvals for all regions of the 1990 futurities had been submitted and that as of January 21, 1990 they had not been returned from the AKC. Subsequent to her report, all four have been returned approved.

Trophy Committee: Don Hanson requested that a new trophy chair be appointed for the 1991 Specialty. Current pledges for the 1990 specialty total 1,025.00, with pledges paid totaling 580.00.

Finance Committee: Victor Cohen reviewed the activities of the finance committee, reading various letters of correspondence relating to yearbook sales, treasury audit and the refusal of credit for any type advertisements. There was considerable discussion regarding the non-payment of 1982, 1983 and 1984 yearbook ads. The finance committee will continue to pursue the advertisers in question for copies of any amount. The finance committee chairman also discussed a "hosting a national specialty" outline that he had prepared for our review. All board members and the national specialty coordinator will review, make comments and return to Victor Cohen by March 15, 1990. Edmund Sledzik made a motion that the letter from the finance committee regarding the ALAC treasury audit be done by a separate mailing. Carolyn Herbel seconded the motion. An amendment to remove any identification of names in the letter failed. Motion carried.

*A PLEASE NOTE: Any person wishing to obtain copies of any committee report should contact the secretary in writing requesting specific reports.

A discussion involving lengthening our committee chair terms of office to more than one year, subject to satisfactory performance, will be passed on to our by-laws revision committee.

Susan Giles will investigate the cost for an outside auditor to perform an audit of the treasury. It was discussed that it might be possible, as well as more cost efficient, to have it performed by an internal audit committee.

The finance committee will attempt to put together three years of profit and loss statements. Once completed, we will submit a filing to the Internal Revenue Service, in order to receive an exempt status.

A motion was made by Carolyn Herbel that the futurity and national specialty regions be defined the same as indicated on page 26 of the 1988 ALAC handbook. In addition, Alaska will be considered as part of region 2. Don Hanson seconded the motion. Motion carried.

There was a brief discussion of membership cards; we will continue to mail them upon receipt of payment of dues.

The board recommended that we instruct Jeanne Hope to commence with the 1993 judges selection process. The total fee including expenses, as previously approved by the board is 1000.00. The board agreed that the fee should remain at a 1000.00 maximum for 1993.

There was discussion relating to the current status of our handbook. We have not published one since 1988. Victor Cohen and Susan Giles both presented proposals for the printing of a 1990 handbook. Carolyn Herbel made a motion that we produce a 6 X 9 three ring looseleaf hardcover handbook of 600 to 700 copies, depending on cost. Don Hanson seconded the motion. Motion carried. Victor Cohen and Susan Giles volunteered to produce the 1990 handbook.

There was lengthy discussion regarding futurity eligibility dates. Carolyn Herbel moved that herewith futurities be held within the two month period specified in the futurity rules. In addition, nominations will be calendar year eligible (Jan.1-Dec.31). Litters born in December 1989 may be nominated for either the 1990 or 1991 futurity; these specific litters will be notified by the futurity secretary and must respond within the time frame she establishes (no less than two weeks). Edmund Sledzik seconded the motion. Motion carried.

The awards (cash prize and medallion) for the 1988 veteran dog and veteran bitch have been located and we were notified that they are in the mail to respective winners.

There was discussion regarding articles and distribution of the ALAC bulletin. There was also discussion relating to the front cover and whether it should be used for paid advertisement. Discussion was tabled until the July board meeting. An increase to 35.00 per full page of advertisement was approved by the board. This increase will cover the cost of screens to improve print reproduction. It was recommended that only tentative reservations for the cover be accepted herewith, until after a decision is made in July. A letter from Jean Fergus was read and the response, written by our president was reviewed.

The board agreed to have the lhasa membership pamphlet reprinted. Carolyn Herbel was requested to have the work done by a local printer and will have them available as soon as they are completed.

A national raffle and game committee was established.

Susan Giles made a motion that Carolyn Herbel be appointed chairperson of this committee. Brenda Schmelzel seconded the motion. Motion carried.

Richard Camacho made a motion that the 2nd, 3rd and 4th place ALAC logos be relinquished. Stephen Campbell seconded the motion. Motion carried. A notice will be placed in the bulletin regarding the use of the logo, or part of the logo.

There was lengthy discussion regarding the national club assuming full responsibility for running the national specialty, effective 1994. It will be reviewed at length at our July board meeting.

Richard Camacho made a motion that we reevaluate the issue of ringside seats for $50.00 donations at our national specialty. This will be done at our July meeting in conjunction with the trophy committee report. Marvin Whitman seconded. Motion carried.

There was discussion regarding the collating of the 1984 yearbooks. There have been volunteers, but because of the required shipping, no decision was reached at this time. It will be decided later.

The 1990-1991 nominating committee was elected:
Brenda Schmelzel, Chairman
Beverly Drake
Judith Camacho
alternates:
Kay Hales
Mary Ann Strysick

Carolyn Herbel made a motion that nominating committee members do not accept a nomination higher than their current position; if they so choose to accept a higher nomination, they must step down as a member of the committee. Victor Cohen seconded. Motion carried.

Our next board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, July 17, 1990, at 6:00pm or 1/2 hour after lhasa judging, if judging runs past 5:30pm, in San Francisco, Ca. Meeting was adjourned at 9:30pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephen Campbell

Join us for the Futurities
They promise to be fun & exciting!

Each region’s host clubs have gone all out to plan exciting weekends of events. With additional shows, matches, supported entries, wonderful trophies, social events and of course the National Specialty in beautiful San Francisco.

We hope you have your 1989 litters nominated! Remember you may show each puppy in ONE futurity of your choosing only!

You will automatically receive information for the futurity region in which you live and have applied, and for Region II in conjunction with the National Specialty. If you desire additional information for the other regions please contact the host chairman of that region to be included on their mailing list.

Good luck and thank you for supporting the ALAC Futurities!!!

GAZETTE COVERAGE

The GAZETTE is planning to cover the Lhasa Apso National Specialty, this year in July 1990, San Francisco, CA. The GAZETTE is planning to give feature coverage to the specialty in a future issue.

THE HOTEL/SHOW SITE:

THE CLARION HOTEL
401 East Millbrae Ave
Millbrae CA 94030
415-692-6363

THE CLARION is one of San Francisco's beautiful hotels, featuring a restaurant, a deli, a sports bar which serves light snacks, a heated pool and jacuzzi, and an indoor fitness center which includes a weight room. All this along with complimentary shuttle service to and from the airport. Several very nice restaurants on the Bayshore are within 10 blocks from the hotel and by prior arrangement and availability with the concierge a complimentary shuttle service is offered to these restaurants. A block of rooms has been reserved at a special rate from July 10 to July 28th. You must identify yourself as a ALAC CONVENTION member to be sure to get the special rates. Standard rooms are with two double beds or one kingsize bed:

1 person $68.00 2 - 4 persons $72.00 rollaway $10
Children under 18 free

These prices are per day and an 8% tax will be added.

The Ballroom is on the mezzanine floor. The cabana rooms on the ground floor do not open onto the quad. There are no dogs permitted in the quad and pool areas.

Sox is pictured winning her third major under Henry Steocker at Catonsville KC - She now need one point to finish, but took a break from the ring and on Nov 27 presented us with three little pilgrims, 2 girls “Pride” & “Promise” and one boy “Quest”. Dad, Ch Tabus Mint Condition is quite proud. I’d like to express my deep appreciation to Carolyn and Norman Herbal for letting me talk them into my having Sox, and forth the knowledge and most of all the friendship they have shared with myself and Richard. And to Nancy Plunket, who worked, slaved & sweated over, loved and whelped my girl - there are no words to express our gratitude. NANCY - YOUR ONE IN A MILLION.

"Introducing our youngster named TEDDY a son of the infamous REDDY from Texas he came, in California found fame I'm a champion now proudly said he!" Shown finishing with a 3rd major under Mrs Wanner at the prestigious Long Beach KC show. Our deepest thanks to Frank & Barb Trujillo for letting us have the "Brat", who sends his apso-lute congrats to his son "Dancer", Jaros Apache War Dancin Bear, owned by the Trujillos for the points he won from the puppy class. Like father - like son - like son! Teddy has several lovely litters on the ground, and is at stud to approved bitches. Fees and pedigree upon request.

With Valentine’s Day and Easter with chocolate bunnies and eggs still fresh in our mind, it seems appropriate to present the content of this article.

Chocolate can be toxic to dogs and with the low body weight of the Lhasa - the amount necessary to create an undesirable effect - is not too large.

The ingredients of chocolate that are responsible for possible problems are caffeine and theobromine. Both of these “drugs” can cause a vasoconstrictive effect (a close-down of blood vessels), tachycardia (a quickening of the heart rate) and central nervous system stimulation - i.e. rapid breathing, jerking movements, drooling, to list but a few.

An ounce of mild chocolate per pound of body weight (10 oz. per 16 pound dog) could be a lethal dose. On the other hand, 10% of that amount (1.6 oz. per 16 pound dog) of baking chocolate would create the same effect.

The theobromine fraction is the more toxic of the two ingredients. It is absorbed very rapidly. Clinical signs include ataxia, diarrhea, muscle rigidity, restlessness, seizures, tachycardia, eventual coma and death.

Treatment involves inducing vomiting if the intake was recent and getting your pet to your veterinarian quickly for activated charcoal, cathartic therapy, injectable tranquilizers and sedatives.

The offending sweets in order of the greatest threats are: baking chocolate, sweet cocoa, hot cocoa, and milk chocolate.

The word to the wise dog owner should be sufficient.

Veterinary Applications of Non-Prescription Medications
by Louis Thompson, M.S., R.Ph.

This is the second of a series of three articles which attempt to provide the dog-owning public with an overview of the medicinal products available at your local pharmacy in the "over-the-counter" or non-prescription category. It is by no means a detailed accounting, but simply a guideline for general use. Your local pharmacist and veterinarian is still the best source of comprehensive information on these matters. Check with him/her for questions of price or quality of products.

PART II: GASTROINTESTINAL DRUGS

LAXATIVES: Most of the laxatives found in today's pharmacy are very effective for canine use, if proper adjustment of the dosage is taken into consideration. Remember, most dogs are not the size and weight of an adult human (Great Dane, St. Bernard, and Irish Wolfhound excepted). I would also not recommend any of the harsher laxatives, such as basically (Dulcolax®), castor oil, or any product containing phenolthalein (Ex-Lax® or Feenamint®). Their action is very irritating, and could produce fluid and electrolyte imbalances in a short period of time. Bulk laxatives (Metamucil® or Citrucil®), mineral oil (Haley's MO®), or milk of magnesia are safer, and produce good results in 12-36 hours. If quicker action is needed, the use of glycerin suppositories (pediatric form) or enemas such as Fleet's Pediatric will usually cause evacuation in 30-60 minutes. There is even a Fleet's Babygel® enema that could be used on puppies, but I would consult with a veterinarian before using it. Avoid prolonged or chronic use of any laxatives because they can cause fluid and electrolyte imbalances as well as rebound constipation. In addition, proper digestion and absorption of food and vitamins can be altered.

ANTIDIARRHEALS: Another common intestinal problem, especially in show dogs exposed to stressful situations and different kinds of water, is the sudden onset of diarrhea. A number of O.T.C. products are available to remedy this problem.

Antidiarrheal compounds can be grouped into two basic categories, the first being adsorbates and astringents. They bind foreign chemicals to inert compounds, such as kaolin clays or pectin, and reduce the excess amount of fluid in the bowel. Examples of these products include Pepto-Bismol®, Kaopectate®, and Donnagel®, which also has belladonna alkaloids present to reduce the spasms of intestinal smooth muscle. Use of this product in older male dogs should be done with care, as it can cause urinary retention and bladder spasms that can irritate the prostate gland. All of the above mentioned products come in generic forms, with a cost reduction of 30-75%, depending on the product. Activated charcoal can also be put in this group, as it is very effective in binding certain chemicals that are very irritating to the gastrointestinal tract. It is available in bulk powder form and in capsules (Charco-caps®).

The other class of antidiarrheals available on a nonprescription basis are the antimotility drugs. These include the belladonna alkaloids, as in Donnagel®, and the paregoric-containing compounds (Donnagel PG® and Parepectolin®) that are available in most states on an exempt signout schedule. Recently, a new antimotility agent, Imodium®, has been released from prescription-only status and is now available O.T.C. in a liquid form. I would advise using the pediatric dose guidelines, and as with all of these medications, if the diarrhea persists for more than 48 hours, consult your veterinarian.

ANTACIDS AND ANTI GAS AGENTS: Most of the time, dogs have little need of these agents, as their stomachs are more adapted for digesting a less refined diet than humans are. The one exception is when a dog is in a bloat, or gastric torsion, situation. In this case the combination of an antacid with simethicone (Anti-Gas), can be helpful in reducing the fluid and gaseous pressure in the stomach. Examples of such combinations include Maalox Plus®, Mylanta II®, and Riopan Plus®. General equivalents are also available for most of these products. Dosages of between 1 teaspoonful and 2 tablespoonfuls can be given, depending on the size of the dog and the severity of the condition. The dosage can be repeated every 2-4 hours, and a veterinarian should be consulted immediately. Once the stomach torsions, or twists, these products will do little, if any, good.

VITAMINS, MINERALS AND DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS: Most commercially prepared dog foods now contain the MDR (minimum daily requirement) of vitamins and minerals recommended for proper canine nutrition. The only times that vitamin or mineral supplements need to be considered is when the animal is under a physically stressful situation such as during pregnancy and lactation, after major surgery, rapid growth periods of puppies, or prolonged periods of showing and travel. A broad range of single vitamin products, as well as multivitamin combinations are available, some in liquid dosage forms. Minerals come in similar dosage forms, and some are contained in multivitamin combinations. High dosages of any vitamin or mineral should be discussed with your veterinarian. Generic forms of most all vitamin and/or mineral products are available, some at considerable savings.

Dietary supplements which provide additional calories and/or protein in a concentrated form are readily available at most pharmacies, and include such names as Meritene®, Ensure®, and Nutrament®. Be careful using these products as they can put a strain on the liver, kidneys, and pancreas, if given too quickly or too often. When used properly these products can provide quick energy and a concentrated form of high-quality protein.

One other dietary supplement that needs to be discussed is the Lactobacillus acidophilus replacements. Brand names for this product are Lactinex® and Bacid®. They are usually kept back in the pharmacy because they must be refrigerated. This bacteria promotes normal intestinal activity and digestion, including the absorption of some vitamins. They can be quickly destroyed by a gastrointestinal infection or by the use of certain broad-spectrum antibiotics, such as tetracycline, ampicillin, amoxicillin, or chloramphenicol. This bacteria is also effective in promoting normal bowel activity in newborn puppies whose mother is being treated by these antibiotics, since most of these antibiotics are excreted in mother's milk. "Uncontrolled" studies have also shown that the prophylactic use of Lactobacillus cultures can possibly strengthen a puppy’s resistance to Herpes infections in the first 10-14 days after birth, the theory being that the bacterial culture crowds out the bacteria already in the intestine that may act as a primary host for the Herpes virus.

The remaining article in this series will cover Cough and Cold Preparations and Miscellaneous Products and will appear in the next Lhasa Bulletin.

Report from your delegate

Although the regular meeting of the delegate body are rather formal and tend to be monotonous at times, the real interest for the delegates are the forums put on by the AKC staff the morning of the meeting. There are usually from 75 to 100 delegates present at these meetings. Some of us wish there could be more, but many delegate travel on the day of the meeting in order not to incur overnight expenses for their clubs.

For me to make this morning meeting, I have to come in on Monday because the first flight out on Tuesday morning would not get me in until after 10:30 taking into consideration the time it takes to travel from the airport to downtown New York.

At each meeting the staff presents topics that they think should be of interest to the clubs and the delegates. Since most of you have access to the goings on at the official meeting through the Gazette and other publications, I intend to report on the interesting subjects covered at these morning meetings.

In September and December, The Board set Mrs. Higgins, Mr Holt and Mr Ward of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee to hear from the delegates their opinions of the eligibility requirements of Delegates. Opinions ranged from stricter requirements to no requirements at all.

I expressed my opinion at this forum. I believe that the decision of who should be solely the decision of each member club. A club should be able to choose whomever its members wish to represent the club as long as that person is in good standing with the AKC.

The members of this committee again met with the delegates at the December meeting and again the delegates were divided on the issue.

Another issue discussed at the December meeting was who should be able to judge new breeds approved to be shown for points at AKC shows. I suggest, that in addition to the Group judges being able to judge the new breed, that those judges that have judged the new breed in the Miscellaneous Group and those judges that are familiar with the new breed by being breeders of the breed, owners of the breed or specialty judges of the breed be allowed to apply for the breed without an examination. There seems to be an interest in this approach. Mr Terry Stacy called and discussed the idea for an hour.

The three hours really goes by fast. The AKC just cannot get enough staff members before us in that short time period. There is talk of having meetings weekends. Maybe that will give us all time to discuss issues and to hear form the AKC on their various projects.

Item: Update on National Specialties:
The 1992 National Specialty has been approved to be hosted by the Lhasa Apso Club of Greater Houston. We look forward to a most memorable week of fun (tentatively scheduled for July 1 - 5) ... What a delightful time we had last time this Club hosted our Specialty (1984?).

Item: The 1993 National Specialty:
This Specialty is scheduled to be hosted by Region One (East). If any club in said region wishes to submit a bid to host this Specialty, kindly contact me.

Item: Update on upcoming judges:
1990 - Mr. Joseph Gregory
(Specialty location - San Francisco)
1991 - Mrs. Carolyn Herbel
(Specialty location - Detroit, MI)
1992 - Mrs. Michele Billings
(Specialty location - Houston, TX)
