Dear Members,

May I wish all of the ALAC members, new and old, the Very Best for the New Year! This is your club, and you must take an active interest in what's happening, keep yourself informed and up-to-date on new proposals, so that you can vote with understanding on the issues. Do you realize that your not voting counts as a yes vote in most issues, so you are voting - whether or not you think you are!

Not every little issue can, or should be adjudicated by the entire membership - this is why the Board is elected, to handle routine matters in a manner best suited to the needs of the club. On the other hand, there are some things that must take into account the thoughts and opinions of all ALAC people: such as the Standard and how its perception might be altered, the manner in which our Specialties and Futurities are held, etc. It is thought by some of us that you (the members) are smart enough, and care enough, to make decisions about the internal workings of this club - I would like to prove this true.

I believe every member has the right to be kept informed about these things as they happen, not after they are accomplished. Some of the changes, are for the better, in my opinion; but they must be laid before the membership before action is taken.

There are times when the President must go directly to the people... while I must work through channels in the ALAC club, membership opinion does still count.

Joan

Marlon dines on Science Diet
In 1964 Dorothy Joan Kendall set out to produce Lhasa Apso's based on a sound structured breeding program. She acquired CH. Everglo's Spark of Gold, the dog that became the foundation stud for her breeding program. CH. Everglo’s Spark of Gold fathered a line of Lhasa’s which became a distinct style in our breed. We all know this line to be ORLANE.

The Orlane Lhasa Apso is a style that Dorothy spent the past 20 plus years developing by careful selection of sire and dam, developing the Orlane breeder code of ethics for her bloodline and selecting Orlane owners that would adhere to her strict rules.

What did Dorothy want her Lhasa’s to look like. Most important she wanted them to adhere to the Lhasa standard. As important, was her desire to breed a correct type dog in both structure and movement. She placed heavy emphasis on sound front and rears, flat top lines and proper dog movement.

The Orlane Lhasa is a dog that is up on leg, short in the body and with the length of neck that makes them elegant to watch both moving and standing still. Muzzle is preferably moderate in length, to conform with the 1/3 - 2/3 head standard, giving the Orlane style Lhasa a head that is appealing to both owners and Judges.

To capture these qualities took Dorothy over 10 years of careful line breeding. Then came the two Lhasa’s that became the proof of her success as a breeder. These dog’s were Ch. Orlane’s Inimitable and Ch. Orlane’s Intrepid. Inimitable (or Rotten as he was called ) passed away in October at the age of 14. He has produced over 40 Champions making him one of the top producing Lhasa sires. Rotten was kept by Dorothy and was selectively used for many years. He was able to stamp his get with qualities that were stated above.

Dorothy sold CH. Orlane’s Intrepid to Jean Blythe in England. Jean took him to great heights as a winner and producer. Intrepid has had a great impact on Lhasa’s in Europe. Bred to many English bloodline Lhasas, his quality became dominant and he has produced over 30 U.S. champions and even more European champions.

Other great producing Sparky son’s with 20 or more Champion’s were CH. WINDSONG’S GUSTO OF INNSBRUCK, CH. ORLANE’S DULMO, and CH. BARCON’S THE AVENGER.

The ORLANE family of owners has grown over the years to International size. Dorothy Kendall recently turned over her Lhasa breeding program to her daughter LINDA KENDALL SMITH. The strict rules laid down by her mother continues to be carried out by Linda and the many other owners of Orlane Lhasa’s.

What is this Breeder Code of Ethics? First there are rules when selling those Orlane Lhasa’s that don’t measure up to being dogs of show quality. These dogs are sold as pets on a strict spay and neuter contract. Second, Orlane breeders are requested to guarantee the health and temperament of their Lhasas with replacement dogs given free if an Orlane Lhasa develops a genetic defect. Orlane owners are requested to avoid breeding to pet bitches. Many Orlane owners throughout the world have adhered to these principals.

The Orlane Lhasas flourish and continue to make their mark in the Show ring and in the high quality of their get because of the strict rules laid down by Dorothy and Linda.

On the following page are listed many of the ORLANE family, owners, breeders, exhibitors and friends of the Kendall’s who are pledged to carry on and expand the work started by Dorothy Kendall. We the Orlane family take this public opportunity to thank her for her tireless effort in producing Lhasa Apso’s in the ORLANE TRADITION. If you are looking for quality show or pet Lhasas and want to be part of this unique Lhasa owning family, please contact Linda K. Smith or any of the other family members listed.
The following is a list of owners of Orlane Lhasa Apsos that offer stud dogs for breeding and may have available Orlane style Lhasa Apso puppies of Show and pet quality for sale.

American pets consumed at least $7.21 billion worth of petfoods in 1989, according to market analyst John Maxwell, Jr. Of that, $6.21 billion came from sales through supermarket, mass merchandise and warehouse outlets. The remaining $1 billion came through specialty outlets (pet shops and veterinary practices).

In the $6.21 billion supermarket/mass merchandise channels, six companies account for almost 84% of the dollar volume:

- Ralston (27.1%),
- Carnation (13.9%),
- Kal Kan (12.1%),
- Heinz (12.1%),
- Quaker (10.9%, and
- Alpo (7.8%).

Other top companies in the Mass retailer channels include Nabisco and Doane Products. With $167.7 million in sales, Nabisco accounts for nearly 40% of the $450 million dog treat market. Doane dominates the private label dry petfood market. In the specialty channel, Hill’s and Iams dominate.

The following are profiles of the top ten petfood marketers in the US, based on estimated 1989 US retail sales.

1. Ralston Purina Company
   St. Louis, Missouri
   Sales: $1,683.1 million

Ralston Purina is the largest manufacturer of dry petfoods in the world. The company has products which compete in all supermarket segments and all distribution channels. Strengths include dry dog and cat food and semi-moist dog and cat food.

Recent developments: Ralston Purina’s market share has been stable—thanks to strong results from new product introductions and heavy advertising.

The company is introducing an expanded Purina ONE line, Nature’s Course brand (natural ingredients) and Cat Chow Special Care Formula (“helps maintain urinary tract health”). New products also include Purina Biscuits, Beggin’ Strips, Purina Beef Complete, Purina Prime, Cat Chow Mature and a CNM diets for veterinary use.

In 1990, Ralston Purina established Pro-Visions Pet Specialty Enterprises to focus on the growing specialty market (outside the supermarket).

This new division will concentrate Ralston Purina’s efforts to provide a greater push for its super premium Pro Plan® products. “It’s a strong signal that we are in the pet specialty segment to stay, and to compete,” according to Scott Harris managing director of Pro-Visions.

In mid-1990, ProVisions introduced the Pro Plan CNM (Clinical Nutrition Management) line formulated as nutritional aids in canine and feline disease management.

Family ties: Subsidiaries include the Continental Baking Co. and the Eveready Battery Co. Ralston’s four new licensed cereals—Nintendo

Cereal System, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, Batman and Breakfast with Barbie—helped improve the company’s share of the $6.8 billion cold cereal market. The Energizer bunny helped the company’s Eveready subsidiary.

In 1989, Ralston entered the baby food market. It purchased Beech-Nut from Nestlé.

2. Carnation Company
Glendale, California
Sales: $864.4 million

Carnation’s Friskies PetCare Products, manufacturers and markets petfoods and related products. Strengths are canned and dry cat food.

Recent developments: Carnation entered the dog treat business in June 1990 by buying Superior Brands of Quincy, Massachusetts, with sales of $60 million. Superior, established in 1966, manufactures and markets a full line of dog treats, cat litter and pet products.

In 1989 Friskies introduced dry and canned Friskies Kitten Formula products. In July 1990, Carnation turned over marketing of Perform, its super-premium direct-market petfood, to SmartPets, a mail-order marketer.

The company recently moved their research facilities (Calreco) from the Los Angeles and Washington state areas to St. Joseph, Missouri.

Family ties: Carnation is a subsidiary of Nestlé SA, Vevey, Switzerland, the world’s largest food company with annual sales in 1989 of $30.6 billion.

Nestlé SA continued to build its US market presence, according to Advertising Age, by increasing ad spending behind its major US units. Carnation Co., Cosmair and Nestlé and General Mills formed Cereal Partners Worldwide (CPW) in 1989 to market breakfast cereals worldwide.

3. Kal Kan Foods
Vernon, California
Sales: $751.6 million

Kal Kan Foods is a unit of Mars, Inc., the world’s largest producer of petfoods. Strengths include canned dog and cat food.

Recent developments: Mars continues to focus on standardizing its brand names internationally. The company is downplaying the Kal Kan name in favor of Pedigree brand for dogs, and Whiskas and Sheba brands for cats.

The Expert line is Kal Kan’s major push in 1991. It is a range (35 SKU’s) of premium quality specialty diets in canned and dry forms—to be sold under the Pedigree and Whiskas trademarks. Also in 1991, Kal Kan will launch a six-item range of products for veterinarians: Waltham canned diets for the management of specific clinical conditions.

Kal Kan continues its strong growth momentum behind a portfolio of premium products. Kal Kan Foods is upgrading pet owners to higher quality foods for pets through premium quality line extensions, particularly in canned, meat-based products.

In 1989, Kal Kan launched Pedigree Choice Cuts and Pedigree Select Dinners. The company now leads the canned dog food segment with the pedigree trademark. In 1990, new products included Pedigree Puppy Food, Whiskas Select Entrées, Whiskas Food for Kittens, and two additional varieties of ultra-premium Sheba cat food.

Family ties: Mars Inc., headquartered in McLean, Virginia, is a major producer of candy, rice and petfood. In 1989, Mars began increasing new product introductions and line-extensions in all divisions. The company is in the process of standardizing its brand names internationally.

4. Heinz Pet Products Co.
Newport, Kentucky
Sales: $750.6 million

Heinz Pet Products is best known for Morris, its "spokescat." The company's strengths include canned cat food and dog treats.

Recent developments: In 1990, Heinz Pet Products Co. relocated its headquarters from Long Beach, California to Newport, Kentucky (the Cincinnati area). The move followed the company's 1988 spin off from the StarKist Seafood Company.

In recent years, the Heinz Co. has acquired several petfood brands: The Skippy Premium, Vets, Sturdy and Recipe dog food lines and the Kozy Kitten, Petunia, Glamour Puss, Figaro and Recipe cat food lines.

Heinz petfoods are beginning to carry the "dolphin safe" and steel recycling logos.

Family ties: Heinz Pet Products is a division of H.J. Heinz of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Sister affiliates in the United States include Ore-Ida Foods, Weight Watchers International and Foodways International.

Ecological concerns are a top priority at H.J. Heinz. Heinz ketchup will debut a new recyclable plastic bottle in 1991. Logos on the company's steel can packaging encourage consumers to recycle. The company's agriculture researchers are attempting to reduce pesticide use by breeding natural resistance into its tomato varieties. StarKist Seafood Co. adopted a worldwide "dolphin safe" policy, refusing to purchase any tuna caught in association with dolphins or any fish caught with gill or drift nets.

5. Quaker Oats Co.
Chicago, Illinois
Sales: $679.1 million

Quaker markets petfoods that compete in all supermarket segments except dry cat food. Strengths include semi-moist and soft-dry dog food and cat treats.

Recent developments: Quaker's petfood business is suffering. Total sales were down 10% in 1989, according to John Maxwell, Jr. of Wheat First Securities. Since their fiscal 1987 acquisition of Gaines, Quaker has lost significant market share in the canned, dry and semi-moist dog food segments. Their 75% share of the semi-moist dog good segment has fallen to approximately 50%, largely due to inroads by Ralston's Moist and Meaty brand.

Quaker recently reformulated and relaunched its Cycle line of life sage products. It is actively seeking veterinary endorsement of Cycle.

New products include Frisbee Flying Dog Treats, Gaines Chicken Cuts, a seafood flavor of Pounce Cat Treats and Liver and Bacon Sausages.

Family ties: Quaker announced plans to spin off its troubled Fisher-Price toy subsidiary to shareholders. Food is now the company's sole focus.

Quaker's strategy to bring advertising and marketing expenses in line with sales increases produced some alarming drops in sales among the company's more mature product lines, according to Advertising Age. Aunt Jemima frozen foods, down 11%; Celeste pizza, down 9%; Golden Grain, down 9%; Van Camp beans, down 9%.

6. Hill's Pet Products
Topeka, Kansas
Sales: $550 million

Hill's is the specialty channel leader—with products that are not available through supermarkets. The company's Prescription Diet line is sold only through veterinarians. Its Science Diet line is available only through pet stores, veterinarians, breeders and other pet professionals.

Recent developments: In 1989, Colgate-Palmolive moved to further strengthen its Hill's division's position with the veterinarian. It acquired the veterinary distribution business of the McKesson Corporation and the veterinary computer company, Professional's Software, Inc.

Colgate also recently acquired the petfood testing laboratory, Theracon, Inc. and the R&D group of Mark Morris Associates.

Hill's received extensive publicity for its sponsorship of the first dog sled crossing of Antarctica. During the trip dogs were fed Science Diet Endurance, a special high fat diet.

In 1990, Prescription Diet and Science Diet packages were redesigned to increase customer appeal and to provide expanded information. The Science Diet packaging prominently displays a "Veterinarian Recommended" seal.

Survey findings indicating veterinarians recommend Science Diet by a three to one margin over the next most recommended brand is the centerpiece of a current Science Diet advertising campaign.

Effective March 26, 1991 Hill's reduced the wholesale gross margin on its Prescription Diet and Science Diet brands from 24.8% to 20.0%. Simultaneously, Hill's increased the suggested retail gross margin from 21.5% to 22.5% for Science Diet products and from 30.1% to 31.0% for Prescription Diet products.

Family ties: Hill's Pet Products is a division of Colgate-Palmolive, New York, New York. Colgate is known primarily for its personal care and household cleaning products.

Colgate is sacrificing market share and shelf facings to accomplish its goal of enhanced profitability, according to Advertising Age. The company's current strategy for its US business includes holding the line on costs, partly by reducing advertising and promotional support for sluggish brands.

7. Alpo Petfoods, Inc.
Allentown, PA
Sales: $482.9 million

Alpo is best known as a leader in the canned dog food segment. But, the company also has a strong position in the dry dog food segment and has recently become an aggressive force in the cat food business.

Recent developments: Grand Metropolitan, Alpo's owner, put Alpo up for sale in 1989. Several months later, Grand Met decided not to sell. The success of Alpo's cat food line may have been behind the decision not to sell.

Sales for the Alpo Cat food line, launched in late 1989, topped $150 million for the first year. It is the most successful new pet food launch in the past decade and the most successful new dry grocery product introduced in the last two years, according to Alpo. The company spent $70 million to introduce the 28-item line—the largest introductory budget in pet food history.

Frank Krum, former president and CEO of Alpo, left the company to become the president and CEO of the Golden Cat Corporation, the nation's largest manufacturer of cat box filler. Golden Cat is the former Edward Lowe Industries, Inc.

Family ties: Alpo is a subsidiary of Grand Metropolitan, PLC, a leading international food, drinks and retailing company with annual sales over $15 billion. Other US subsidiaries include Pillsbury, Burger King, Carillon Importer, Heublein and Pearle, Inc.

Grand Met recently sold several sizable food groups to ease its corporate debt. In mid-1989, it sold Bumble Bee Seafoods and Van de Kamp's Frozen Foods. In 1990 it sold its All Brand Importers, which markets Foster's Lager, Moosehead and Dos Equis, to Guinness Import Co.

8. Doane Products Co.
   Joplin, Missouri
   Sales: $400 million

Doane is the second largest manufacturer of dry pet food in the US. Most of the company's product is private labeled for retail outlets such as Wal-Mart, Farm and Fleet and various supermarket chains.

Recent developments: Doane added two plants, one in Washington Court House, Ohio, the other in Tomah, Wisconsin. The company now has nine manufacturing locations.

Doane now offers dog biscuits in addition to dry dog and cat food and fish food.

Family ties: Doane is a privately held company, founded in the 1950s. The company prefers to keep a low profile.

9. The Iams Company
   Dayton, Ohio
   Sales: $220 million

The Iams Company is a leader in the premium dog and cat food niche, with two full-line brands: Iams and Eukanuba. The company's products are sold exclusively through approximately 16,000 pet stores, breeders, veterinarians, kennels and other pet professions.

Recent developments: In 1990, Tom MacLeod, formerly president of Sara Lee's bakery division, joined Iams as president and chief operating officer. Clay Mathile remains chairman and chief executive officer.

Also in 1990, the company introduced two additions to its Eukanuba line: Adult Eukanuba Original and Puppy Eukanuba-Large Bites. In early 1991, Iams introduced its first canned products: Cat food in two varieties, chicken and ocean fish. The company will soon open a new plant in Henderson, North Carolina.

Iams' market share in the specialty niche continues to grow. Since 1982, annual sales for the 500 employee company have grown from $10 million to more than $200 million. Currently most of Iams' sales are in the US, but the company is stepping up efforts to market its pet foods internationally.

The company continues to deny industry rumors that it will begin distributing through supermarkets. "Iams remains committed to its current distribution channels," says Glen Williams, Iams' marketing communications manager. "We feel that by their very nature our products are best sold by knowledgeable and concerned pet professionals."
GOLDIE

Wins back to back BOBs from the Bred By Class over the Bitch Special under noted Breed Judges Ed Bivin for a 4 Point Major and Maxine Beam for 3 points.

For her first time in groups, she conducted herself in a very lady like manner under noted Lhasa Judge Maxine V. Beam and walked off with a Group IV, & under W. Everett Dean, Jr. a Group III. Thank you judges for appreciating this very correct little girl.

Goldie stands 9-3/4" and weighs 11# soaking wet.

GOLDIE is Breeder/Owner handled and was exhibited solely in the Bred-By Class.

GOLDIE is out of:

10. Nabisco Brands, Inc.
   East Hanover, NJ
   Sales: $167.7 million

Nabisco has marketed Milk-Bone dog treats since 1931. It is the leading brand in the dog treat segment.

Recent developments: Parent company RJR Nabisco put Milk-Bone up for sale in mid-1990, but it has yet to be sold. Ralston Purina, Quaker, Heinz and Carnation are rumored to be interested.

In mid-1988, Nabisco introduced Milk-Bone mint flavored biscuits. In late 1989, the company introduced Milk-Bone Tartar Control biscuits, which are formulated to help prevent canine dental disease. Marketing of the tartar control product coincides with US veterinarians more actively promoting the importance of pet dental care.

In 1989, RJR Nabisco reduced debt by the sale of businesses, such as Chun King, Del Monte, Kikkoman, Baby Ruth and Butterfinger. The company's cigarette business had its troubles. Test marketing of Uptown, a cigarette brand targeted at blacks, was canceled due to public outcry. Dakota, a brand targeted at "virile females," suffered a similar fate. Introduction of the premier "smokeless" cigarette was also called off.

Meeting was called to order at 1:02pm by President Joan Kendall.

In attendance: Joan Kendall, Amy Andrews, Lynette Clooney, Carolyn Herbel, Ed Sledzik, Nancy Plunkett, Brenda Schmelzel, Becki Kraus, Marie Allman, Joyce Johanson, Susan Giles, Ken Troy.

Also present: Eddie Hutcheson, Ronnie Crowder, Victor Cohen, and Becky Johnson.

President’s Message: Joan issued a welcome to those in attendance and laid out her expectations for the general mode and hopeful purpose of the current Board.

Several members of the Board expressed a desire to view a copy of the corrected minutes before publication. Becki moved and Lynette seconded that before the Board meeting minutes are forwarded to the Bulletin that they be sent in corrected form to the Board for final approval. Motioned passed unanimously.

Marie Allman addressed using a roll-call vote with each motion. Marie moved and Brenda seconded that the Board use a roll-call vote with each motion in reference to those issues in dissension. Ray noted that according to Roberts Rules, a roll call vote is an automatic option with any motion. Lynette called for the question.

Roll call vote called.

Marie yes Becki no
Amy yes Nancy no
Lynette no Brenda yes
Susan no Ray no
Carolyn no Ken no
Joyce no Joan yes

Motion defeated.

Secretary’s Report: Amy Andrews presented 2 pieces of correspondence asking for breeder referrals, Wind Designs and Ronald Zander. Ray moved and Joyce seconded that we allow outside organizations access to our mailing list with preapproval from each member.

Roll call vote called.

Marie yes Becki yes
Amy yes Nancy yes
Lynette no Brenda yes
Susan no Ray no
Carolyn yes Ken no
Joyce yes Joan yes

Motion passed.

Susan moved and Carolyn seconded that non-member requests for the membership list for commercial use be charged a fee of $100.00 for a hard copy or labels, excluding the AKC. Motion passed.

Copies of a formal letter of complaint from Lynn Lowy and copies of letter and petition submitted by Toni Stewart and signed by several western members were presented to the Board (details under new business).

Treasurer’s Report: Carolyn Herbel presented and reviewed the financial report from July 4 through August 31, 1991. Receipts totaled $12,496.50 and expenses totaled $7,269.81 bringing the balance to $21,755.31 in the general fund. The 1991 Annual Report was reviewed as well. Receipts totaled $47,620.61 and expenses were $30,222.94. The fiscal year account balance came to $29,313.73. Also presented was the September 1 through November 1, 1991 report. The receipts were $4,307.50 and expenses came to $9,853.66 bringing the general fund balance to $21,924.15. Lastly, the 1991 National Specialty Financial report was reviewed. Receipts totaled $8,795.75 and expenses came to $5,910.79 bringing the profit to $2,884.96. The entire report was accepted by the Board.

AKC Delegate’s Report: Ray Sledzik read a letter from a California member complaining that a BBE Lhasa is being habitually mis-entered and its wins rescinded but the entry count not reduced as a result. The letter writer wants the count reduced and asked this question be brought to AKC. Ray also gave the Board highlights from the September Delegates meeting.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Yearbook: After presenting copies of the Committee’s financial report, Chairman Amy Andrews stated that the committee made $227.55 BEFORE sales of the 1985-87 issue. Proposals and new applications for the next issue were edited and accepted by the Board. Susan moved and Becki seconded that the Board accept the fees proposed. Motion passed. As soon as they are spiral bound, all of these Yearbooks will join those already in possession of Dot Primm. The Bulletin’s yearbook ad was adjusted.

There was discussion regarding the Board’s procedure when notified of the death of an ALAC member or a member’s relative. The Board decided to stay with the current policy of taking no action in order to avoid the embarrassing situation in the event of failure to send condolences.

Breed Standard: A letter/report from Norman Herbel was read by Carolyn. The committee plans to discuss color choices offered on blue slips as their next project.
Board Meeting

American Lhasa Apso Club

Obedience: Brenda Schmelzel announced Jenny Drastura has volunteered to keep obedience statistics for ALAC. These will be published in the Bulletin.

Awards: Eddie Hutcheson presented a written report and stated he found a company who will do the plaques cheaper, though they will need to make a template of the ALAC logo.

Membership: Joyce Johanson presented copies of the new membership applicants.

Finance: Victor Cohen stated that the audit has been completed for fiscal years 1989-90 and 1990-91. The funds have increased from approximately $2,000.00 to $21,000.00 during this time. Carolyn stated why ALAC became solvent and the procedures Vic initiated to get them that way. The Treasurer’s procedure regarding the handling of NSF checks was discussed. Vic suggested ALAC charge a returned check fee for NSF checks.

Bulletin: Susan Giles reported that the Handbook printing was $747.00 and mailing was $238.00. The latest Handbook insert was mailed with the latest Bulletin.

OLD BUSINESS

Specialty/Futurity Task Force: Joan introduced a memorandum from Debbie Burke and Jeanne Hope covering several points concerning the operation of the task force. Points of dispute were taken with several items listed in the memorandum. Lengthy discussion ensued regarding the proposal. Carolyn restated the recommendations of the Task Force at Marie’s request because copies of the recommendations were not available at the July 1991 Board meeting:

Assumptions:
1. Division of territory to 6 regions: northeast, southeast, mid-north, mid-south, northwest, and southwest.
2. Subcommittees under the direction of the ALAC Show Committee: Show Chairperson/Judge Contractor/Regional Host Coordinator, Contract Negotiator/Committee Coordination, Trophy, Advertising, Finance Chair, Raffle Chair, Obedience Chair, Futurity Committee, Publicity/Premium list, Guidelines Coordinator

National Specialty:
Roving per the 6 regions, site selection/contract negotiation by ALAC, show date always the 3rd full week in June (Mon.-Sun.), co-hosted by Clubs/membership clusters within region, locations 6 years hence published, contracts negotiated 3 years hence.

Futurities:
6 Annual Futurities (1 per region) with Best Puppy and Best Adult; Grand Futurity competition at the National Specialty; locations self-determined by regions; all futurities judged during April and May.

She also expanded on the various points in the Assumption and the specific job descriptions of the ALAC show committee. Joan also restated the recommendations of the Task Force. Marie asked for further clarification by Carolyn on the hosting items and made several points critical to the success of the host club’s show and efforts:

Ken moved and Joyce seconded that ALAC shall, beginning in 1994, be responsible for its annual Specialty Show in the following specifics:
1. ALAC shall make all arrangements for site selection not more than 4 years in advance.
2. ALAC shall be responsible for the signing of any and all hotel contracts pertaining to ALAC.
3. ALAC shall be responsible for all publicity, catalog sales, and advertising and selection of a show superintendent as well as vendors for the ALAC Specialty.
4. ALAC shall be responsible for raffle/Lhasa game held in conjunction with the Specialty.
5. All other function such as hospitality, banquet, setting up and taking down of show site, and discussion with host club site selection may be allocated to the local host club or group. Nothing in this motion shall preclude a host club from having a local specialty at a time either before or after the National Specialty.

Ray moved and Joyce seconded that the Board address each item of the motion separately. Ken accepted. After lengthy discussion, Ken moved to call the question. Joyce seconded. Motion passed.

LACOGNY Hosting of the 1993 National Specialty. Joyce moved and Carolyn seconded that the Board accept the LACOGNY proposal providing that the contract be amended to specify that the sliding room scale for the ballroom be on a per week basis. Motion passed.
At this time, Joan opted that discussion temporarily skip to NEW BUSINESS

Copies of a letter of formal complaint filed by Lynn Lowy, asking for the permanent expulsion of a member of ALAC over an incident at the Austin Kennel Club on October 19, 1991, were distributed to the Board members present. Lengthy discussion ensued concerning procedures, reviewing Lynn’s first and second letters sent to the Board Members. Susan moved and Carolyn seconded that the Board table this consideration until the AKC makes a decision regarding the matter. Ken moved to Call the question.

Lynette yes Brenda no
Susan yes Ray no
Carolyn yes Ken no
Joyce no Joan no
Motion passed.

Back to OLD BUSINESS
The Futurity/Specialty Task Force. Ken moved and Joyce seconded that the changes in the Futurity recommended July 12, 1991 be sent to the membership for approval with an explanation for the changes. After much discussion, Carolyn called for the question, seconded by Ken.

Roll call vote called:
Marie yes Becki no
Amy no Nancy no
Lynette no Brenda yes
Susan no Ray no
Carolyn no Ken yes
Joyce yes Joan yes
Motion failed.

Joyce moved and Lynette seconded that the ALAC National Specialty Show Committees take under serious consideration holding an ALAC Sweepstakes in conjunction with the National Specialty. After extended discussion, Ray called for the question and Joyce seconded. Motion carried. Ken abstained.

Candidates Profile. Becki presented Richard Camacho’s report. Its contents detailed a suggested standard profile of each candidate running for election to the ALAC board, listing such items as “length of time in dogs, pet projects and goals for ALAC, talents and skills, etc.” Ray moved and Joyce seconded the Board postpone this discussion until Richard can present it in person. Motion carried.

Correlation between the Membership Promotion Committee/Education Committee/Membership Committee. Education committee chairman Lynn Jamison’s report was read by Brenda. Fran Strayer and Jean Taylor have been added to the committee. A report was read by Joan from Jenny Drastura offering to withdraw as chairman of her committee. Discussion ensued concerning the material she should send in response to any inquiries. Joyce moved and Brenda seconded that Jenny be invited to remain as Membership Promo Chairman and be directed to place ads the Board approved of at the last meeting. In response to inquiries, she is to send out ALAC’s membership pamphlet. Any responses on educational matters are to be forwarded to the Educational Chairman. Also, she is to develop questionnaires to find why ALAC has lost members and find how ALAC can better serve them. Motion passed unanimously.

1992 National Specialty. Marie reported that a superintendent is yet to be hired. She was advised to get bids. The super’s job will be to do everything except secretary and set up the show. The number of catalogs to order was discussed. The ALAC National Specialty show secretary will be Ray (temp).

Back to NEW BUSINESS
Nominating Committee. As stated in the July 1991 minutes, the Board decided to keep the early January date to start nominations. The Board will solicit names to be selected for the nominating committee by mail starting early December. Susan moved and Ken seconded that the Board select a nominating committee (3 people, 2 alternates) this evening so that they can be in place to start working in early January.

Roll call vote called:
Marie no Becki no
Amy no Nancy absent
Lynette no Brenda no
Susan yes Ray yes
Carolyn abstained Ken yes
Joyce no Joan yes
Motion declined.

Breed Rescue/Placement Service. Sue Jamison is available to work on this committee. June O’Brien is also able to contribute. Ray brought up several points concerning legalities, housing, logistics, etc. Ray advised the Board set up a committee to investigate this issue, headed by a dedicated breeder true to the cause. Ray moved and Becki seconded that Joan Kendall chair the to-be-formed Breed Rescue/Placement committee. Motion carried.

Trust Fund. Ken outlined his plans to set up a $10,000.00, 50 year trust fund post-mortem to supply ALAC with $500.00 worth of cash show prizes for...
"Hey Carianne, what's your game now, can anybody play?"

Carianne is pictured completing her CDX just over one year after her ALAC High In Trial. All three CDX legs were earned with placements at all breed trials (including a first place), demonstrating the utmost "willingness and enjoyment" of her work.

Her outstanding structure, effortless movement and exceptional temperament make her a winner in both the breed and obedience rings. She is pointed.

"Carianne" thanks her many fans (including of course, judges) for their ongoing support and congratulates Barbara and her friend, Barjea's Rachael on her recent championship and Best of Breed from the classes.

Board Meeting
Nov. 2, 1992
St Louis,
Missouri

BBD, BBB, HIT and JS each year at the National Specialty. One trustee will be Linda Kendall-Smith. He asked for position recommendations for 3 more. The Board recommended the President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Joan commended Ken's efforts.

Delaware Valley LAC Petition. A petition presented by the Delaware Valley Lhasa Apso Club was presented. After stating that several elements on the Guide were "not in the best interest of the breed" and requesting a reopening of discussion of the Guide, the petition requests a new vote based on
1. 'MANY' MEMBERS NOT RECEIVING BALLOTS
2. NO INDICATION OF CHANGES WERE FROM THE ROUGH DRAFT AND "HOW THE (GUIDE) WOULD BE IMPLEMENTED.
3. NO INSTRUCTIONS ENCLOSED, THE FACT THAT THE GENERAL MEMBERSHIP WAS VOTING, AND WHAT THE FINAL TALLY WAS.
4. LACK OF KNOWLEDGE OF HOW THE BALLOTS WERE COUNTED, WHO COUNTED THEM AND WHAT RECORD WERE KEPT. THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY, IF PUT TO A RE-VOTE, A PROPOSAL OF COUNTING THE BALLOTS BY A COMMITTEE RATHER THAN THE SECRETARY.

A lengthy discussion ensued. The Guide vote mailing also included Futurity judges, the ninth Board member, and the AKC's BBE issue. According to Past Secretary Stephen Campbell's balloting, 157 voted for and 28 voted against. Ray Sledzik mentioned that this is an issue to be brought before the general membership. Correspondence from Past Secretary Stephen Campbell was read regarding the tallying of the vote. Ken moved ALAC send a letter of acknowledgment of the petition of the DVLAC and state that the Board is in the process of seeking AKC's recommendations on this issue. Motion not seconded. Carolyn voiced her concern over the petitioners' accusations of incompetency and distrust of the ALAC Secretary, Stephen Campbell and Ann Lanterman, who mailed the ballots. The Secretary was instructed to call AKC regarding the correct handling of this petition issue and report back to the Board.

Standard Operating Procedure. Ray asked the Board's OK in the latest legislation implemented by the AKC. He also advised methodology concerning the Board members' vote for meetings and asked for the purpose of the Board telephone polling regarding the LACOGNY Specialty.

This matter was clarified by Joan who stated that the phone poll was done because the hotel contract deadline was approaching and Chairman Ken Troy wanted to know if he had Board approval of the contract before the Board meeting so he could finalize agreements with the hotel in advance of a vote.

Carolyn and Ray expressed some concern about the omission of judges and the misconception that the Judge Rating Forum was an ALAC function because it was held in the Hospitality Suite. Also, she questioned why the Forum was by invitation only and the exclusion of Judges. Ken replied that the Judge Rating Forum was held on a day the Greater Detroit Lhasa Apso Club was hosting with permission from the Chairman, that the invitations were sent to get a representative group of Lhasa exhibitors to participate, and that judges were excluded to avoid judges rating other judges.

Marie moved and Brenda seconded the Board adjourn at 12:30am. Motion failed.

Ray moved and Nancy seconded that all current committee chairs stand. Motion carried. The Board then voted to appoint the following: Dot Primm will replace Evelyn Bigman as Yearbook Distribution Chairman. The Guidebook/Manual coordinator is Don Hanson. National Specialty pamphlet/premailing/premium list mailing is now coordinated by Susan. Contract Negotiations/committee coordinator is Victor Cohen.

The petition submitted by Toni Stewart and signed by her and several other western members (Ellen Voss, Stacy Voss, Megan Morrison, Elaine Scharf, Sylvia Nestle, and Pam Gamble) regarding false advertising was read to the Board and copies disbursed. Ken moved and Ray seconded the Board table the petition until the next Board meeting.

cern over the Bulletin’s increasing advertising volume while her magazine was decreasing in size. The letter stated that “the Bulletin’s practice of operating at cost was unfair and illegal” and that ALAC has strayed from its original intent for the Bulletin to be a “breed-serving” project. The letter went on to suggest that the Bulletin would better serve the Fancy with a greater number of informative articles rather than in the preparation of ads, serving the fancier rather than the advertiser. The letter was reviewed and discussed. No action was taken.

LHASA JUDGES - RATINGS & PREFERENCE REPORT

If you want to save money and show your Lhasa where he or she can win, you need the Lhasa Judge Rating Report.

Our ratings, based on a judge's constituency of placement, goes from the best rating of 1, to the poorest rating of 5. We used a numeric code to define a judge's preference in nine different categories:

Size, Style, Movement, Temperament, Head, Structure, Coat, Mouth and Tail.

These preferences are based on the importance a judge may place on a specific category, or what a judge prefers such as SIZE: Small size, Larger size or Moderate size Lhasas.

Starting with the first issue in February we will be offering quarterly updates. These updates will include new judges, revised ratings based on our panel of exhibitors reports.

Cost of the REPORT & updates rating 330 judges, is just $10.00 per year. The Lhasa Judges Report is a non-profit publication of Sentinel Consultants Inc. to improve the quality of judging for the Lhasa breed. We welcome the input of Lhasa exhibitors, just write to us, giving us your evaluation of a judge's preference based on your showing experience.

IS YOUR PET’S BREATH WORSE THAN ITS BITE?

Does your pet’s breath knock you over? If so, your pet could be suffering from a serious dental problem called periodontal disease. Periodontal disease affects both people and pets. But, you can control this disease and other dental problems with a complete dental care program for your pet.

"Periodontal disease is the number one dental problem in dogs." according to Dr. Tom Maddux, president-elect of the American Animal Hospital Association. "Pets are as likely to have bad teeth and gums as people, so we need to make sure our pets receive proper dental care."

Periodontal disease occurs when plaque, a daily deposit of food, saliva, and bacteria, forms on the tooth. If not removed, the soft plaque hardens into rough tartar which irritates the gumline and causes the gum to become separated from the tooth. The gum tissue around the tooth becomes diseased and could lead to pain, bad breath, reddened gums, loose teeth, and possible loss of teeth.

Your pet may have serious dental problems if it has a change in eating habits from hard to soft food; refuses to play with a favorite chew toy; avoids drinking cold water; or chews on only one side of the mouth.

You can stop unnecessary dental problems from happening. Begin a total dental care program by taking your pet to your veterinarian for an oral health exam. The condition of your pet’s teeth will be evaluated and a regular cleaning schedule will be determined.

A yearly dental check-up and cleaning by your veterinarian is important for your pet’s overall dental care. Just like your dentist, your pet’s veterinarian will clean the teeth both on the crown and under the gumline where periodontal disease starts.

You can continue your pet’s dental care at home by brushing your pet’s teeth three times a week. Your veterinarian can show you how. The only tools you will need are a soft toothbrush and special "pet" toothpaste. Never use human toothpaste as it may cause stomach upset or vomiting.

Home care can be improved by feeding your pet hard biscuits each day. Veterinary studies have shown that the abrasion produced from chewing hard biscuits helps remove plaque and tartar from teeth.

Complete dental care is a partnership between you and your veterinarian. Together, you can control dental disease and help keep your pet’s breath fresh and teeth and gums healthy.

116th WESTMINSTER DOG SHOW

ENTRY CLOSED WITH 2500 CHAMPIONS OF 144 BREEDS AND VARIETIES

The entry for the 116th consecutive, annual Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show closed on Saturday, November 16th, when the Club’s limit of 2500 AKC champion dogs was reached. This was seven weeks before the official closing date for the entry. The Westminster Dog Show is the oldest, continuous sporting event in America with the exception of the Kentucky Derby. All of the 2500 dogs entered in the 1992 Westminster are AKC champions of record. This is the first time a Champions Only dog show has been held in America. Leading the entry are Dachshunds with 71 of the three varieties. There are 52 Poodles of the three varieties, 45 Akitas, 42 Irish Setters, 41 Golden Retrievers and 36 Pomeranians. Every breed and variety recognized by the AKC will be represented including the two recently recognized breeds, the Chinese Crested and the Petit Basset Griffon Vendeen.

The judging panel will be headed by Melbourne T. L. Downing of Timonium, Maryand, who will select the Best In Show. The group judges will be: Louis Auslander, Lake Forest, IL (Sporting): Mrs Gayle Bontecou, Clinton Corners, NY (Hound): Mrs Alice Downery, Libertyville, IL (Working): Mrs Dawn Vick Hansen, Elkhorn WI (Toy); Mrs George John Wanner, Sr., Largo, FL (Non-Sporting) and Louis H Harris, Vienna, WV (Herding).

The Westminster Kennel Club will acknowledge and honor the superior quality of the entry for its AKC Champions Only dog show by awarding special Bronze Medallions of Merit in each breed. The Medallions will bear the Club’s emblem of Sensation. TheBronze Medallions will be awarded in addition to the Best of Breed and Best of Opposite Sex ribbons. The Best of Opposite Sex will also be eligible for a Bronze Medallion at the discretion of the judge. The number of Bronze Medallions of Merit that the judge may award in each breed will be based on the number of dogs judged, i.e.: Two to ten dogs, one Medallion; Eleven to twenty dogs, two Medallions; Twenty-one to thirty dogs, three Medallions; Thirty-one to forty dogs, four Medallions and Forty-one and over, five Medallions.

LHASA entry 20 dogs, 11 bitches = total 31

A special invitation to . . .

ADVERTISE!

The 1992 National Specialty is just around the corner — July 3, 4, and 5 in Houston, Texas — so it's also time to start thinking about advertising in the Specialty catalog.

Your ad will support ALAC and the National Specialty as well as tell everyone about your great new puppy, your new Champion or your latest Group Winner!

or announce a promising new litter or just give everyone your special message and good wishes!

All you need to do is send me a layout for your ad — it doesn't have to be camera ready — JUST LEGIBLE!! Please make sure your instructions are clear if you want the ad to be designed a certain way. Photos will be returned during Specialty week along with a tear sheet from the catalog. Also, please be sure to include your check or money order made payable to The American Lhasa Apso Club, Inc.

DEADLINE IS MAY 15, 1992

Resolve to Take Better Care of Pets

This year, try making New Year's resolutions to improve the lives of your pets. Here are some suggestions. I resolve:

• To not let my animals run loose. Free-roaming animals constitute a nuisance to neighbors and are a danger to themselves. They are unlikely to live long.

• To have my dogs and cats neutered so they do not add to the millions of unwanted pets destroyed each year in shelters. There are no advantages to an animal having a litter, and many health and psychological benefits to its being neutered.

• To exercise my animals every day, putting dogs and cats on leashes or in secure runs. Also, I will take my bird out of the cage daily for exercise.

• To schedule annual veterinary checkups for all my pets, including birds and horses, and to provide all suitable immunizations. Dogs, cats and horses should be checked for internal parasites at least three times a year and have their teeth scaled twice a year.

• To find a veterinarian who takes time to answer my questions, listens to what I say and is interested in health maintenance, nutrition and exercise in addition to dealing with disease.

• To provide veterinary care at the first sign of trouble. Home treatment often results in prolonged or fatal illness.

• To put signs on all my doors indicating what pets are inside and where, in the event I am away during an emergency.

• To work out a fire drill with my family and practice it at least every other month, being sure that pets are included in the exercise.

• To stipulate in my will what is to be done with my pets in the event of my death and to have a durable power of attorney, which permits someone to act in my behalf when I am unable to do so.

• To buy a crate for my dog or cat and train the animal gently and gradually to use it so that it will have a place of refuge.

• To feed animals a complete and balanced diet suited to their species on a regular schedule, and to cut back on my pet's food if it is overweight.

• To work with my dog in obedience-training classes.

• To teach my children to be humane to all animals.

• To brush and comb my cat, dog or horse every day.

• To stipulate in my will what is to be done with my pets in the event of my death and to have a durable power of attorney, which permits someone to act in my behalf when I am unable to do so.

• To stipulate in my will what is to be done with my pets in the event of my death and to have a durable power of attorney, which permits someone to act in my behalf when I am unable to do so.

• To never chain a dog outdoors or lock it in a cellar or garage.

• To never ride with pets loose in the car. A crate is a necessity and may save the pet's life.

• To never strike, scream at, abuse or roughhouse with my pet.

• To increase and adjust the care given to pets as they grow older.

• To have my pet put down by a veterinarian if I no longer can keep it or find a suitable home. Turning a pet loose to starve or be killed is the ultimate cruelty.

• To remember that attention, affection, conversation, cuddling and play are as important as food to my animals.

THE EVOLUTION OF A SENTRY

It was a mild Florida night. We were sleeping soundly when my tiny Lhasa Apso, Sable, jumped up on the bed and started growling. She stood close to my face to be sure to awaken me. I noticed that the outside intruder light had come on.

Sable continued her low, throaty growl. She has barked at faraway sounds before, but this time it was different.

I grabbed a bath robe and a powerful battery lantern. Sable and I headed down the hallway toward the back door. She was impatient with my caution and ran ahead a few steps, came back and gave me a shove in the right direction.

I expected Sable to make a beeline for whatever it was that had her all excited. To be perfectly honest, I was willing for my little dog to be the point man on our reconnaissance patrol. But that’s not the way things went. As soon as were outside, Sable took up a defensive position immediately behind me.

I gave the yard an inspection with the lantern and didn’t see anything unusual. Perhaps it was an opossum traversing the property and exciting the dog.

Sable stayed close to my side, even after I had decided we weren’t under enemy attack.

The whole adventure lasted only a few minutes. Sable and I verified that our yard was secure and went back to sleep.

Lately, I’ve been thinking about that night. Why didn’t my dog charge out into the yard? Why didn’t she go to the trouble to wake me up and herd me out on a search-and-destroy mission? I’ve seen her spot a squirrel through a window and take off like a rocket. When a stranger rings the doorbell, she runs to the door and barks a sharp warning. What made her so cautious in the dark of the night? Even the smartest dog in the world is incapable of the sort of analytical thinking that humans apply to problems. Most of a dog’s behavior is adaptive, conditioned or characteristic of dogs in general. But here was a dog that suddenly turned very cautious one night and deferred to me to encounter the unknown.

I can only conclude that my dog’s behavior that night was also conditioned. Perhaps she had a prior bad experience out there with a raccoon or an opossum. For all I know, she correctly identified the noise as coming from a human prowler and she didn’t feel like tangling with an animal ten times her size. Whatever it was, it pleased me that my dog was responsible enough to be on guard while we were sleeping, and sensible enough to fetch me.

I’ve always been careful to reinforce my dog’s performance as a sentry. Once in a while she is fooled by the sound of a doorbell in a television drama and she runs to the front door to bark. I always go to the door and open it when that happens, because I think it is a good idea to make the dog feel important. And I praise her for barking when the next door neighbor returns home late at night. I want her to get the idea that speaking up when she hears something is acceptable behavior.

A Lhasa Apso wouldn’t be much help in the event of real trouble. She’s simply too small to fight off a bad guy. But I wouldn’t trade her. She appears committed to guarding the house and she has the good sense to call me when real muscle might be needed.

Reinforcing a dog’s barking may or may not lead to annoying behavior. Given a little guidance, many dogs can learn to use their keen hearing and loud barking for positive purposes. They can discriminate between good things to bark at and bad. They learn to always stop barking when given a command. My little Lhasa has a job just like everyone else in the family, and she seems proud of her position as the Official Sentry.

The Canadian Kennel Club

ATTENTION: All Foreign Exhibitors!

Make sure you apply for an Event Registration Number

Effective January 1, 1992 all dogs that are foreign born and foreign owned and enter Canada for the sole purpose of entering CKC events will no longer require a CKC registration number but will require an Event Registration Number (ERN). This ERN number does not register a dog with the CKC for breeding purposes as defined in the Animal Pedigree Act but rather enables a foreign-born and foreign-owned dog to be awarded titles by The Canadian Kennel Club. Each dog must have its own number.

To obtain an ERN number simply do the following:
- Send a photocopy of the dog’s registration certificate reflecting current ownership, for example, AKC Registration Certificate, with a written request for and ERN number.
- Include with the above a cheque or money order in the amount of $35 payable to CKC.
- Ensure that you provide your full return address to enable the ERN number to be sent to you.
- Faxed requests will be accepted. Please include your Visa/Mastercard number, expiration date, cardholders name and signature.

This ERN number MUST be applied for within 30 days of the first day of entering a CKC event.

Dogs may be entered as "listed", however, failure to apply for an ERN number within 30 days of the first event will result in the cancellation of any wins, awards or scores. Any points or scores earned prior to Jan 1, 1992 are not subject to cancellation due to the lack of an ERN number.

All dogs that finish prior to Jan 1, 1992 must be CKC registered to have a title confirmed.

Deadly Parasite May Be Spreding

A type of microscopic organism that lives inside dog erythrocytes (red blood cells or RBCs) has been diagnosed recently in Southern California. The parasite, Babesia gibsoni, (pronounced bah-BEEZ-ee-uh GIB-sun-eye) is normally found in Asia and Egypt. Rare cases have been reported in the United States, typically in dogs that had traveled outside the country. But the cases recently reported by Dr. Patricia Conrad, et al., from the University of California at Davis, included 11 dogs that had never left California. There is growing concern that dogs in other areas of the country may also be infected and undiagnosed.

Babesia gibsoni is transmitted via blood inoculation (bite wounds), most commonly via ticks that carry the organism from one dog to the next. The most common symptoms associated with babesiosis (the disease caused by Babesia) are bague. They include lethargy, anorexia and signs associated with anemia, such as weakness, pale mucous membranes and exercise intolerance. Diagnosis can be difficult, since the organism must be identified within RBCs.

Most laboratories in this country are unfamiliar with the organism’s appearance and may easily miss the diagnosis. Autoimmune hemolytic anemia (AIHA), also a difficult disease to diagnose and treat, is commonly misdiagnosed, since the two diseases cause almost identical symptoms. If valuable time is lost treating the wrong disease, babesiosis can progress quickly and cause death. (If your dog has been diagnosed with AIHA and is not responding appropriately to treatment, consider a test for Babesia gibsoni.)

Successful treatment requires prompt, accurate diagnosis and securing government approval for purchasing the appropriate drugs, which are not currently approved for use in the United States.

If treatment is initiated in time, dogs may survive the initial stage. Even with proper treatment, however, it appears that elimination of all the organisms from the body is very difficult, and relapses are expected. Dogs may require multiple treatments and should definitely have their RBCs examined regularly. Prevention relies heavily on tick control.

Brynwood Lhasas proudly presents:

Byrnwood's William H Bonney

Willie is shown going BOB for his second major under Mr. Emil Klinkardt. He was then piloted to a Group III under Mrs. Eve Whitmore of Canada by his 17 year old breeder/owner, Anne Olejniczak. Willie was major pointed (4 points) at 8 months from the puppy class and needs 5 singles to finish in very limited showing. He was first in the 9-12 month puppy class at the 1991 Futurity held in conjunction with the National in July, 1991 under breeder judge Ann Lanterman. He and his brother, Byrnwood's Bosco Bear, went first and second in the 9-12 puppy class and assisted their Sire to first place in the Stud Dog class at the '91 National Specialty under breeder judge Carolyn Herbel. We are very proud of this young man. He is at stud to approved bitches and an extended pedigree is available upon request.

LOCAL CLUB NEWS

LOCAL CLUB LIASION REPORT

On September 19, 1991, President Dorothy Kendall wrote me that the ALAC Board had accepted me as cairperson of the ALAC Local Club Liasion. Early in October, I wrote to twenty-one (21) local club contacts requesting lists of officers, etc. As of this date, I have had replies from only:

Cascade Lhasa Apso Fanciers of Greater Seattle
Lhasa Apso Club of Westchester, Inc
Merrimack Lhasa Apso Club
National Capital Lhasa Apso Club, Inc
Twin Cities Lhasa Apso Club

Unfortunately, Sierra Lhasa Apso Fanciers has dissolved and mail was returned undeliverable from Heart of America Lhasa Apso Club.

One on my predecessors, Don Hanson, sent out an excellent questionnaire to local clubs and I have had an opportunity to review these. It seems that local clubs have views on ALAC ranging from apathy to hostility and I am sorry to see this. I know that the ALAC Board feels as I do that this is unfortunate and we would all like to promote better communications between the local clubs and ALAC along with our other goals.

Now that the holidays are over and new officers for 1992 are in place I’m submitting another call for local club secretaries to send me 1992 list of club officers, address of club secretary and any information about your meetings, newletters, Specialties, seminars suitable for reporting here in the Bulletin. I hope to hear from:

ART-EST LHASAS LOVE SCIENCE DIET
To ALAC Members and Friends:

The National Specialty Trophy Committee was formed by the ALAC Board in 1986. In addition to coordinating the trophies for the ALAC National Specialty and assisting the host club, the committee has been charged with solicitation of contributions to the on-going Trophy Fund.

The trophies will continue with the tradition established at the 1986 National - that of Wilton-Armetale Pewter. The pewter pieces are crested with the ALAC Logo and include deep set engraving of the American Lhasa Apso Club.

The purpose of this letter is to solicit your contribution, as it is only with a donation from each and every ALAC member and friend that the Committee can successfully reach its goal. Each trophy donation will be acknowledged in the National Specialty catalog.

We have four categories: Benefactor (two reserved ring side seats at Futurity and National): $50 and up; Patron: $30 to $49; Contributor: $20 to $29; and Supporter: up to $20. We have taken the liberty of including a contribution form at the bottom of this letter. We would appreciate receiving your donation as soon as possible to enable us to order the trophies for 1992.

Thank you in advance for contributing to the success of the 1992 National Specialty. Please make your check payable to "ALAC" and send it to:

KALEKO and KAYLA introduce
THE REDHEADS!

Kaleko and Kayla are very proud of The Redheads (the seventh generation for Kaleko is the first for Kayla). Since winning the Brood Bitch Class at ALAC's 1991 Specialty with her entire last litter whelped 6/30/90, Miss Priss is watching her kids sail to the top, with Best in Specialty Sweeps and multiple BOB, BOS, and Group Placing over Specials from the classes: Bea-Bea (Multiple BOB/BOS Ch Kaleko Kayla's Beatitude) finished her title in 12 shows, including WB at the 1991 Detroit Specialty from the 12-18 Month Bitch Class; Tom and Daisy (Group Placing, Multiple BOB/BOS Kaleko Kayla's Tom Terrific and Multiple BOB/BOS/Best in Specialty Sweeps Kayla Kaleko Upsa Daisy), both looking for finishing 3-pt majors to complete their titles; Woody (BOS Kayla Kaleko Woodruff Wilson) is pointed and on his way; and Patti (Can CH Kayla Kaleko Patti Cakes) completed her Canadian championship undefeated with her Canadian Mom, Valerie Weston.

Type, soundness, elegance, outstanding movement, fantastic good looks, and TYPE! These Lhasas have it all. Are we proud? You bet! Stay tuned to upcoming issues for more . . . .

Compiled from the records of 1991 THE JUDGING FORM
(Copyright publication of Sentinel Consultants Inc. - Ken Troy, President)

The Lhasa Apso standings for 1991 are based on a point system as follows:

- Best In Show.........................10 points
- Best In Specialty Show...........5 points (ALAC 10 pts.)
- Group 1.............................5 points
- Group 2.............................4 points
- Group 3.............................3 points
- Group 4.............................2 points

In the event of point ties, dog with the highest number of Best of Breeds first. After that dogs are listed alphabetically.

ANNOUNCES

1991 EDITION of THE JUDGING FORM™

The Fifth edition of the Judging Form will be published by mid-March. Our service provides the information you need to make the right decision under what judge and at what shows you should enter your dogs.

The 1991 JUDGING FORM provides in one easy to read and study judging results that can save you time and money in showing your LHASA’s.

1. Over 180 pages of show results from 1100 dog shows.
2. 340 Lhasa Judges and how they placed dogs at every show.
3. Group placements and Judge that placed Lhasa.
4. Points awarded for every winners dog or bitch. Total show entry.
5. Lhasa group placements and every Non-sporting group judge.
6. Show index with all dogs entered in one handy to use master list.
7. Now includes the Judge Rating for both consistency and Judge size preference.

Armed with this vital information you can make intelligent decisions as to what judges your dogs could do well under. Many of the dogs in the 1991 Judging Form will be in competition in 1992. Know who your potential competitors are for the coming year.

Showing dogs is an expensive hobby. Our service will save you money by reducing the number of shows you should be attending. Previous year owner’s of The Judging Form have told us that their winning percentage increased as they became more selective in the judges they showed under.

When you purchase the 1991 Judging Form we include, free a printout of all placements for your dogs (if they appear in any 1990 show) either by your name or your kennel name.

The cost of this annual service is $25 plus $2.50 for first class shipping.

We are also offering a Computer version of the 1991 results database plus operating manual, cost $75.

* SPECIAL OFFER:
We still have The Judging Form results for 1987, 1988, 1989 and 1990.
Order any book with the 1991 results and you get each for only $20 per book.
To order your copy of 1991 The Judging Form or a past edition fill in coupon below and send together with your check. We ship postpaid by First Class Mail. We also accept Master Charge, VISA and AMEX.

ASK AKC January 1992 AKC Gazette

If a dog is excused, or Winners is withheld, or a judge withholds first in a class versus withholding fourth, what dogs count as far as computing points goes?

Chapter 19, Section 1, of the Dog Show Rules covers the awarding of championship points. The last paragraph stipulates that, "In counting the number of eligible dogs in competition, a dog that is disqualified, or that is dismissed, excused or ordered from the ring by the judge, or from which all awards are, shall not be included."

If Winners is withheld, no dog of that sex will be awarded championship points. Further, even if Winners is awarded in the other sex, there would be no Best of Winners award. The Winner, therefore, would receive only the points awarded in its own sex.

If a judge withholds first, second or third placements while awarding the fourth placement, the fourth place dog and all subsequent dogs would count toward the number of championship points awarded within that sex. But if there are more than four dogs in a class and fourth is withheld, only the dogs placed first, second and third would count toward points awarded, as all awards would be withheld from the remaining dogs.
