The Angel With Four Paws
by Susan Marino, R.N.

There are many beings who come into your life, but every now and then, one comes into your life and you are never the same. I knew that Missy was special the day I brought her home, but I had no idea how profoundly she would affect my life.

Missy had come from a litter of six Lhasa Apsos, one was cuter than the next. I couldn't decide which puppy to choose so Missy guided me. She separated from the golden bundles of fur in my lap, ran to the other side of the room, and began tossing a stuffed toy in the air. Then she scampered back to where I was sitting on the floor and cocked her head from side to side. I reached out to stroke her head and she teasingly ran off. It seemed that she was looking out from the corner of her eye to see if I were watching. Of course, I couldn't take my eyes off her. She captivated my heart completely. I left the breeder's home feeling as though I had been chosen.

From the very first moment, this wise enchanted being entered the house as though she was home. Wagging her tail joyfully, Missy excitedly scurried from room to room. Her excitement was contagious. My children, three year old Jen and one year old Kim, were delighted with their new puppy, who playfully jumped and licked their faces. To this day I can clearly hear the giggles of my children as they rolled on our front lawn receiving a healthy dose of Missy's kisses. Jen and Kim frequently entertained our family with their "Off Broadway" productions, Missy, dressed in her many costumes always had the leading roll.

My daughter Heather was born the following year. Missy was totally intrigued with her. Whenever Heather was sleeping in her cradle Missy would curl up nearby. It looked as though Missy was sleeping, but as soon as someone came near she would alert me with her bark. There was never a need for a playpen for Heather, Missy was her guardian. I would place the baby on the living room floor with her toys. If she tried to leave the room, Missy would lift her by her overalls and guide her back to the middle of the room. Missy watched over our home and our children like a guardian angel. She performed the same service when my children, Todd and Dantae, were born. Missy was vigilant about caring for our family. No one came into our home without getting permission. When they approached, Missy would warn me and seek my assurance.

Missy's outstanding nurturing abilities extended to other animals as well. One day our tomcat Mittens, came home from a cat fight, very defeated. His face was bleeding and he was limping on his front paw, Missy licked his face ever so gently, tending to his wounds and his hurt pride. She then curled herself around him and they both fell off to sleep. I went to bed that night knowing that Mittens was in good paws. When Missy was four years old, my husband and I divorced. She just seemed to understand how difficult this was for all of our family. When I would return home each day there seemed to be just a little extra enthusiasm in her welcome. Her company eased the void during the long lonely nights. Her innate ability to understand all that was going on around her showed in all that she did.

Missy aged with grace. When she was fourteen her vet was amazed with her youthfulness. Her sight and hearing were perfect. He was particularly impressed with her teeth which he claimed were the teeth of a five-year-old.

The following year, I noticed a lump on one of her nipples. My worst fear was confirmed: it was cancer. There would be no surgery; she was too old.

Over the next year, the tumor grew slowly. We began to see signs of aging for the first time. Both her hearing and her sight were beginning to leave her. Missy's playtimes were still filled with enthusiasm, but now they were always followed by a one hour nap. She began to lose a little weight. I bought her a sheepskin rug to make her more comfortable, and I spent many hours holding her and talking to her. I was a practicing registered nurse. My dear friend Ada had been diagnosed with cancer, and had been given only two weeks to live. I met with her at the hospital. We had long talks and three dys later Ada moved into our home.

Once again Missy's sensitivity to her surroundings was reawakened. She had a job to do. She protected and cared for Ada. With great vigilance and enthusiasm she sat outside of Ada's bedroom twenty-four hours a day, except for the brief moments when she went outside or ate her dinner. Ada felt safe and protected, and took great comfort in stroking Missy's head. If anyone tried to enter Ada's room, Missy would growl warning. Ada just laughed.
Like a little sentry, Missy would not let a soul in until Ada gave her approval. Missy and I cared for my friend for six weeks until Ada passed. The morning that she died, for the first time since Ada came to our home, Missy finally left her position at the doorway. I was so proud of Missy.

Missy's tumor began to grow and her physical energy slowed, but her spirit was very much alive. My children, family and friends began to suggest that I have Missy euthanized. Her eyes told me that she was happy and content and that she was not ready.

More than two years passed and Missy continued to be the official greeter at our front door. Her tumor had grown to the size of a golf ball, and she would sleep most of the day. We began to let her outside only with supervision because she could no longer see or hear very well. During the summer of 1990, we had exchange students from France living with us. Missy was always happy to have company in our home. One very hot summer day, I was ironing in the den and Missy was curled up sound asleep on her sheepskin in front of the fireplace. It was always so comforting just to watch her. I got a call from my daughter asking me to come and pick her up at the local pizzeria where she worked. I ran to change my clothes and proceeded to go and get her. As I pulled out of the driveway, my right tire went up in the air and came down with a thud. I got out of the car, thinking that I had run over one of the kid's toys, but to my horror I had run over Missy. I held her crushed body in my arms and the tears began to fall. Every fiber in my body ached and then became numb. She continued to breathe. Minutes passed, but it seemed like hours. As I held her and prayed, she took her final breath. I found out later that while I had been changing my clothes, Missy had scratched at the front door to go out and one of the exchange students had let her out.

That night we had a little ceremony and I wrapped Missy in her sheepskin rug and laid her to rest. I placed her in an "Angel Garden", a place under an old oak tree in our yard. Missy had been with us for more than seventeen years. I will hold her memory with me for my lifetime. She is an angel with four paws.

Body Shape - The length from point of shoulders to point of buttocks longer than height at withers, well ribbed up, strong loin, well developed quarters and thighs.

Coat - Heavy, straight, hard, not woolly or silky, of good length, and very dense.

Nose black, the length from tip of nose to eye to be roughly about one-third of the total length from nose to back of skull.

MAIL COMPLETED FORM NO LATER THAN APRIL 1ST
Bobbie Wood, ALAC Awards Chairman
102 Kenilworth Blvd., Cranford, NJ 07016-1512
The meeting was called to order at 4:15 PM by President Susan Giles. In attendance were Susan Giles, Larry Bruton, Bud Brockway, Stephen Campbell, Elizabeth Chidley, Beverly Drake, Pat Keen, Ann Lanterman, Judy O'Dell, Dot Primm, Bobbie Wood, and Ray Sledzik.

President’s Report — Susan welcomed all in attendance and stated that because so much of ALAC business has been conducted via e-mail and Fax, there are very few agenda items that need to be addressed. The meeting should, therefore, be fairly short.

AKC Delegate Report — Ray Sledzik reported that the next delegates meeting will be in St. Louis in June. AKC is making progress with its program of DNA identification. We should be hearing more about this in the near future. There is also an 800 (easy access #) now available at AKC. Contact Ray for that number.

Secretary’s Report — Secretary Esther DeFalcis was not in attendance. Susan Giles gave the Secretary’s Report which was approved. Esther reported that as of January 21, 1998, there are 243 members of ALAC, consisting of 164 single memberships and 79 family memberships. We received 131 post cards from AKC judges who judge the Non-Sporting Group and/or Lhasa Apsos requesting to receive the ALAC Bulletin. Ballots were sent to the ALAC Officers and Board Members and they have elected a 1998/1999 Nominating Committee.

Treasurer’s Report — Stephen Campbell stated that the club is on the right track in getting our finances accounted for. Steve has begun to put together a statement of the club’s financial condition that he will do quarterly. He presented the board with an updated budget for the period 9/1/97 - 8/31/98, as well as a financial Statement as of 1/15/98. He stated that we currently have $33,054.67 in total assets, with $15,087.62 in liabilities. This gives us a current capital/surplus of $17,967.05. Steve encouraged all of us to stress to the membership the importance of donating to the National Trophy Fund as this is such a major expense at the national.

Steve also reported that because of Clive Harrold’s recent accident and injury to his left hand, the Benitez/Wilkes Fund sent $500.00 to help with the cost of his physical therapy.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Awards Committee — Bobbie Wood reiterated the necessity of getting the Award Forms to her by the deadline of April 1.

Breed Standard Committee — Both the Breed Standard Committee and the Judges Education Committee met prior to the Board Meeting. The committee is continuing work to complete the Illustrated Standard with additional photos and illustrations.

Educational and Health Committee — Lynn Jamison reported in writing that her committee had not to date heard from AKC regarding DNA testing at the 1998 National Specialty. The committee does plan to have CGC testing at the Specialty.

Handbook Committee — Jan Bruton reported that the Handbook is now finished and ready to print. Because there have been so many recent changes in members addresses and area codes, it has been difficult to get all the information updated. It is hoped that if members find information that is still not correct in the updated Handbook they will send the necessary corrections to Jan and/or the ALAC Secretary. It is anticipated that the Handbook will be printed and ready for distribution with the mailing of the next Bulletin.

Futurity Committee — Ann Lanterman reported that as of Jan 29, 1998, she had received 83

Historian Committee — Linda Crabill, newly appointed Chair, reported in writing that she is in the process of completing an inventory of the materials sent to her by previous Historian, Becky Johnson. Linda reported the discovery of narrated video tapes of some early Specialties. She suggested ALAC purchase these tapes for the cost of $150 and then show them in the Hospitality Room throughout the week of the national specialty. A discussion was held on the matter.

Motion 98-1 Pat Keen moved and Ray Sledzik seconded that Pat will donate her personal copy of these Specialty tapes to be shown at the National. In the event that Pat cannot find her tapes, ALAC will proceed to purchase the tapes that Linda has identified.

Judges Education Committee — Don Hanson reported that the JEC committee held a Judges Seminar on 2/14/98 at the DJAA in New York. The script used by the presenters has been somewhat updated and improved and the presentation went well. This committee also met prior to the board meeting with the BSC. The need for better visuals continues to be a matter of concern and is being rectified. Don further reported that the JEC does have plans to schedule a “judges seminar” presentation to the membership during the week of the National Specialty. Three resumes had been submitted to fill the vacant seats of the JEC Committee. Those who submitted resumes were Ann Lanterman, Fran Strayer, and Robyn White-Lily.

Bev Drake questioned the Board’s policy regarding review of a committee and its members. Larry Bruton stated that the Board will regularly review a committee’s progress and that it is to be done once a year at the Board Meeting in conjunction with the Annual Meeting in June. In June 1997, both the JEC and BSC Chairs reported that their committees were working well.

The JEC will in the future designate one committee member to be responsible for each of the six regions in the country.

Measurement Certification Committee — Nancy Plunkett reported in writing that ten dogs were certified in 1997. The numbers were low due to Nancy’s absence from the National Specialty. It is hoped that more measurers will become qualified and more dogs will be certified in 1998.

Membership Committee — Joyce Johanson reported in writing that in 1997 there were 15 new ALAC single memberships and 9 new family memberships. Joyce expressed the need to send the Handbook and Bulletin to new members.

National Specialty Show Committee — Steve Campbell reported that the 1998 Specialty will be held in Denver June 18, 19, and 20. Everything is progressing on schedule. Regarding the 1999 Specialty, Pat Keen Fernandes reported that the committee has not been able to secure a location in the southeast or Florida region. The Marriott at the Airport in Washington DC was not available.

Ways and Means Committee — Pat Hufnail had no report, but did submit her resignation to the Board. She requested that Dash Plates be ordered for the 1998 Specialty.

ALAC BULLETIN: A discussion was held regarding the Bulletin and how we might improve it. Bud Brockway gave the following suggestions for increasing advertising activity in the Bulletin:

1. Actively solicit advertisers
2. Lower the advertising rate

At this time, there will be no change in advertising rates – the Bulletin can not be allowed to lose large sums of money.

Concerns which have been expressed by members regarding the Bulletin

1. Not receiving the Bulletin on time
2. Not getting photos back in a timely fashion
3. Not knowing when the deadlines are

Motion 98-2 Ray Sledzik moved and Bev Drake seconded that each Board member solicit five (5) ALAC members to advertise in the Bulletin. Motion passed unanimously.

Further discussion included a reminder of deadline dates: 3/10/98 and 5/10/98. Judy O’Dell requested that the Bulletin’s policy regarding the mailing of issues to Lhasa judges be clarified with a statement in an upcoming issue. Bud Brockway suggested that we consider mailing a questionnaire to Breeder Judges and then to All breed/Lhasa Judges asking them to state what they expect or are looking for when they are judging. We would then feature one judge in each issue of the Bulletin. A discussion pointed out that the editors of the Bulletin did not have the time to take on this added responsibility.

Motion 98-3 A motion was made by Pat Keen Fernandes and seconded that Bud Brockway and Judy O’Dell develop such a questionnaire and submit it for consideration. Motion passed unanimously.

MEMBERSHIP DUES:

Motion 98-4 Larry Bruton made a motion and it was seconded by Pat Keen Fernandes that the Board extend membership dues reversed until renewal March 1, 1998 without having members reapply for membership. Motion passed unanimously

Motion 98-5 A motion was made by Ray Sledzik and seconded by Betty Chidley that any committee member or board member whose dues are not paid by 3/1/98 will no longer be members of ALAC. Motion passed unanimously.

Motion 98-6 A motion was made by Susan Giles and seconded by Bobbie Wood that 1999 dues notice will be included in the Bulletin and also under separate cover according to the by-laws. Motion passed unanimously.
WAYS AND MEANS CHAIRMAN: A discussion was held as to who might be a good replacement for resigning Chairperson Pat Hufnail. It was decided to ask Tom Gertz if he would consider accepting this responsibility.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE: The proposed slate was presented by Sarah Fitzgerald, Chairperson, Larry Bruton and Debbie Greene:

- President: Susan Giles
- Vice President: Larry Bruton
- Secretary: Debbie Greene
- Treasurer: Stephen Campbell
- Board Members: Bobby Wood, Pat Keen Fernandes, Bud Brockway (3 year terms)
- AKC Delegate: Ray Sledzik (3 year term)

BREEDER REFERRAL: It was discussed that individual regional clubs send breeder referral names to Leslie Bauman so she knows whose names to include on her referral list.

PAST ALAC PRESIDENTS DUES: The question was raised as to the Board’s 1997 ruling about past presidents being required to pay yearly dues to maintain their membership in ALAC. The question was whether this was meant to include all past presidents, or just those from the time the motion was enacted. The Board agreed in total that it was meant to include all presidents past, present, and future.

Motion 98-7 Larry Bruton made a motion, seconded by Bev Drake that a letter be sent to all past ALAC presidents informing them of ALAC’s policy and the requirement that they now need to pay yearly dues to be a member of ALAC and that they be encouraged to do so.

ALAC 40th ANNIVERSARY: Ray Sledzik brought to the Board’s attention the fact that next year, 1999, is the club’s 40th anniversary.

Motion 98-8 A motion was made by Ray Sledzik and seconded by Larry Bruton that ALAC recognize our 40 year members at the National Specialty.

Motion passed unanimously.

Motion 98-9 Pat Keen Fernandes made an additional amendment to recognize these 40 year members with a page in the catalog.

Motion passed unanimously

CLUB LIAISONS: A review of Regional Club and Board Liaison was conducted. (Susan has list)

Judy O’Dell asked what non-regular classes were to be offered in Obedience at the National Specialty this year. The answer was that only those classes that have been offered in the past will be offered this year, except there will be NO team judging.

Meeting adjourned at 7:00 P.M.
